Ryder Tenney led the entire race, ultimately clinching the micro-overall victory. Casen Jennings was hot on Ryder's heels, nearly catching up as they approached the checkered flag. Meanwhile, Brody Herrington had a strong performance in the 90cc 4-stroke 9-11 class, securing third overall with second place close behind.

Camden Phillips clinched another overall and class win, leading his class by an impressive 1 minute and 42 seconds over the second-place finisher. Bryson Stringfellow secured second overall along with a win in his class. Gracin Brand rounded out the top three with a third-place overall finish and a second in his class, trailing Bryson by just 17 seconds.

Steven Harrell dominated the race, leading nearly every lap except for the second, and secured the overall victory by 5 minutes and 40 seconds. Nick Davidson, from the Open A class, claimed second place overall and his class win by 1 minute and 54 seconds. Tim Sroka from the Pro Am class completed the top three overall finishers, also earning his class victory by 1 minute and 7 seconds.
