Judge Dunn to Break First Ground at Feeding Medina County Community Garden

Feeding Medina County and Judge Dunn seek volunteers to assist in the planting of new crops in the community garden on Lafayette Road.

MEDINA – Feeding Medina County and Judge Kevin Dunn would like to invite community members to help break first ground at the Feeding Medina County Community Garden Saturday, May 31, 2014 at 10:00 A.M.

The first planting day in the two-acre garden, located at 901 Lafayette Road in Medina, will include music and food for participants.

All produce harvested from the garden will be used for Feeding Medina County's hunger outreach programs, including Free Fresh Produce Outreach Distribution, Staples for Seniors, and Weekenders for Children. Last year, the garden yielded tomatoes, peppers, beans, spinach, peas, squash, cucumbers and carrots.

Medina County Juvenile Court began a collaborative effort with the garden during the first year in 2013 by volunteering juvenile community service workers to assist in the planting and harvesting of the produce. The youth will return this year as needed to help plant and maintain the garden by watering, harvesting and pulling weeds.
