PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Community Service Program, operated by the Medina County Juvenile Court, is a way for youth to “pay back” the community. The Community Service Program provides work experience to the youth served by the Juvenile Court. The Court has defined community service work as labor provided to a non-profit or governmental agency. The participant is not compensated for services. The program operates throughout the year.

PROGRAM GOALS

- Youth Accountability
- Provide Structure
- Develop Teamwork Skills
- Build Personal Confidence
- Provide Supervision
- Payback the Community

PROGRAM STAFF

Community Service supervisors are employees of the Court. A supervisor will contact you and schedule you for service. Program staff will address any questions and scheduling issues you may have.
