PURPOSE OF PROBATION

Medina County Juvenile Court Probation Officers investigate all aspects of the Juvenile's case and make recommendations to the Court to protect public safety and to achieve permanent improvement in a child's behavior.

Juvenile offenders may be placed on Probation as a community control sanction at their Disposition Hearing. Traditional Probation is indefinite, meaning Juveniles will only be terminated upon successful completion of all Court orders and compliance with their Rules of Probation.

If placed on Probation, you will receive random visits from your Probation Officer at home, school, and your place of employment.

In order to ensure compliance with Court orders and protect public safety, your Probation Officer will meet with you randomly. During these visits, you may be instructed to submit to a toxicology screen, discuss updates on counseling or compliance with Court orders, progress in school or at work, as well as random searches of your person and property.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who is it for?

Any juvenile offender may be placed on Probation at their Disposition Hearing. It is at the discretion of the Judge and/or Magistrates.

How much does it cost?

Probation carries a $150.00 fee. In addition, you will be responsible to pay Court costs and fees, drug screen costs, programming fees, as well as Detention Center stay, if necessary.

How long will I be on Probation?

Traditional Probation is indefinite, meaning you will only be terminated upon completion and compliance of Court orders and Rules of Probation.

What happens if I test positive for drugs or alcohol?

If a juvenile on Probation tests positive for substances, other than prescribed medication, you could be placed on the following sanctions:

- Drug and Alcohol Assessment/Counseling
- Verbal House Arrest
- Electronic Monitoring
- A warrant may be issued for your arrest for placement at the Juvenile Detention Center

When and how often will I meet with my Probation Officer?

Visits from your Probation Officer are random. Your Probation Officer will decide when, where and how often you will have to be in contact.
