O'Reilly's Auto Parts | Georgetown, TX

Parts Specialist

In my role as a Parts Specialist at O'Reilly Auto Parts, I was responsible for various pivotal tasks contributing to the efficient functioning of the store. I played a central role in providing excellent customer service by identifying and supplying automotive parts according to customer needs. This included handling inquiries, offering technical assistance, and ensuring accurate and timely transactions. I maintained a well-organized inventory, restocking shelves, and contributing to a clean and orderly store environment. Collaboration with the team to optimize workflow and effective communication with customers and vendors were essential aspects of my role. My dedication to accuracy and customer satisfaction significantly contributed to the overall success of the parts department at O'Reilly Auto Parts.

Marco's Pizza - Hutto, TX

Food Service Worker

As a Food Service Worker at Marco's Pizza, I played a key role in maintaining a smooth restaurant operation. I expertly prepared and assembled pizzas, ensuring adherence to quality standards. Addressing customer inquiries, handling orders efficiently, and ensuring a clean workspace were among my primary responsibilities. I actively contributed to a positive work environment by collaborating with the team and facilitating effective communication. Additionally, I managed cash transactions, maintained an accurate register, and played a crucial part in ensuring customer satisfaction through prompt and accurate order delivery.
