

Changes to Our Anthologies and In-House Worlds

Discover the exciting updates to our Anthologies and Shared Worlds programs, including changes to buy-in, royalties, and cover designs.

All of our anthologies are published wide and never go unpublished so you get royalties for life. You can create a book from your story 6 months after the release date.

FAQs

What Factors Determine the Success of Our Anthologies and Shared Worlds?

Reader engagement, sales performance, and the overall appeal of the Anthology and Shared World to the target audience.

When Are Royalties Paid?

Royalties are paid based on the payment schedule of the house which is monthly, but not for the current or previous month due to when the royalties are sent to the house.

Example: September 2023 royalties are paid to the house the first of January 2024. On January 15, 2024 the house sends out all royalties that are $5 or more for the author. Anything less than $5.00 for the author is rolled over month to month until it reaches $5.00.

Royalties are sent out direct deposit. If you have not filled out a direct deposit form - you can request one from the Executive Assistant to the CEO, Aubrey Spivey at Aubrey.spivey@warrioresspublishing.com.
