

Learning through Applied Behaviour Analysis (ABA)

Course:

How to teach using Behaviour Analysis in Education?

Strengths Inventory, Needs Identification

Based on the Interview for the Indirect Assessment, you are to identify the Strengths of the Child and the Needs to address.

Domain	Strengths	Needs
Personal (Social Categories of the Learner's Identity)
Biological / Sensory
Motor
Emotional
Functional: Tasks and Routines (Ability to perform daily task in the home, school and community)
Social: Interests and Activities

Social: Communication (Ability to make requests)
Social: Communication (Ability to Play, Imitate and Interact)
Social: Communication (Ability to Respond and Engage in a Conversation)
Social: Communication (Ability to express himself using functional language)
Cognitive and Academic
Others		