

BELLEVUE ARTS COUNCIL SPRING TO SUMMER NEWS - 2023

From April through June, the Bellevue Arts Council has been quite busy! All of our events were well attended, but don't let that hold you back...keep coming! Near the end of the newsletter, a brief calendar of events is posted, so you are able to snip and save the list!

In early April, three guys from our Bellevue Arts Council hosted an event: Three Visions – Three Artists.

Mike Doland, Dave Eischeid, and Michael Pedersen exhibited their talent at this weekend show.

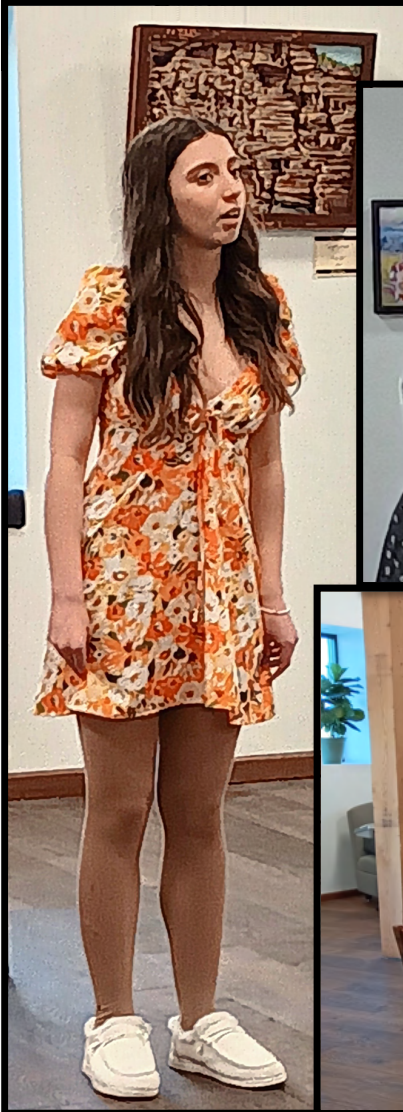

Three Visions is the perfect description for these talented artists!

April also boasted our 2nd Annual Poetry and More, where the entertainment was, of course, seated in the audience. We listened to a plethora of fine arts including poetry, music, and even an essay and a chapter from a book! And the cupcakes did not disappoint either!

Penny North, Linda Nudd, Joannie Kilburg, and several music students from Bellevue High School, under the direction of Mrs. Jill Roe, as well as State Speech students from BHS, participated in the event, celebrating The Fine Arts and Poetry Month! Donna Medinger and Mary Reed accompanied the BHS student vocalists, so we also enjoyed their dedicated talents as well.

Memories Of Ukraine On Canvas

This event was a collective effort between Bellevue Arts Council and St. John Lutheran Rebecca Circle. The event was to Showcase Hanna Krainik and her “Memories of Ukraine on Canvas.”

Hanna and her family have been living in DeWitt with their sponsor family, the Purcell’s, since the need to flee their homeland was necessary for Hanna and her family’s safety.

Hanna’s talented artwork was on display, and many of her prints were available for purchase. It was a full house event with community and beyond stopping by to visit and peruse her works, as each piece shared a detailed description and the purpose for which it was created.
