

Merry Christmas,

Time for the Masters' family yearly update again.

In early May, Faith and I took the RZR and visited my old high school friend Dave Glover in Mesquite, NV. While there we did some desert sightseeing including a 2-day excursion to Caliente and the surrounding area with a group of Dave's friends. It was a great trip and fun spending time with Dave. He and his friend Judy were able to pay us a short return visit in August.

James and his family came from Texas to visit for the Memorial Day weekend. We did some hiking and the whole family got together at Jerry & Lynette's place in Elizabeth. It was a short visit, but we were happy to be able to spend time with them.

Our grandson Michael (Chad's oldest) has met a sweet girl also named Chrystal (yep, 2 Mike's and 2 Chrystal's when we gather). We got to meet her parents and Grandparents when we spent the 4th of July at Mike's place in Miliken, CO. A few months later, Mike sold that property and moved to Colorado Springs to live with Chrystal.

At the end of July, we did another RZR focused trip, with a bunch of Family (Rod & Cindy came from Idaho, Faith & I, Jerry & Lynette and her 2 boys (Travis and Nate)) met at a small resort with RV sites and Cabins in Medicine Bow National Forest in southern Wyoming and spent 4 days riding trails there. It was beautiful and we had a lot of fun.

In Mid-August, we got the boat out of mothballs (has not been out since before Covid) and gathered most of the Colorado family (and several of their friends) at Lake Pueblo for 4 days playing on the water. It felt good to all be together at the lake again.

Faith & I managed one more weeklong trip with the RZR to Island Park, ID where we met Rod & Cindy at their Time Share. The weather was a little wetter/snowier than last year, but we had a great time and still got in some long rides to a remote area in the south-west corner of Yellowstone and along the Continental Divide between Idaho and Montana. We had a day of shopping in West Yellowstone and some swimming and hot tub time at the Condo. The golden color of the aspen leaves in the mountains in the Fall is spectacular!

The year has seemed to fly by and we are so glad to have been able visit with family and friends. It is what makes life fun and interesting. Wishing you a year filled with joy and contentment.

Mike & Faith
