

Future for Iringa Street Children

Does it seem like everyone is celebrating at the moment? The sun is out, the Olympic Torch, the Queen's Diamond Jubilee... Well the gang at FISCH have a lot to celebrate too! It's not only because of God's amazing love for them; have a look below at some other reasons the FISCH Kids are getting up, singing, dancing and performing.

FISCH Choir @ Amani Church

Recently the FISCH Choir were asked to perform at one of the churches in Amani, a town near Iringa.

FISCH @ the Stadium

On 16th June there is a bank holiday in Africa to celebrate African children and to remember the many children who died in South Africa back in the 60s. In Iringa there is going to be a big ceremony at the football stadium and the FISCH Street Stars have been asked by the Municipal to attend the ceremony with the rest of the FISCH kids. This is going to be a great day for the kids and also a fantastic opportunity for the local communities to discover more about FISCH and what it does.

Street Stars @ Neema Crafts

On May 25th the FISCH Street Stars were booked to perform a show at the Neema Crafts Centre in Iringa alongside a band called Sour Sour. The Centre provides handicraft training and employment opportunities for people with disabilities in Iringa. The FISCH kids have been working hard to perform their very best!
