INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND OTHER PERSONS

Section 1. Personal Liability of Directors.

(a) A director of this Association shall not be personally liable for monetary damages as such for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, unless:

(2) the breach or failure to perform the duties of his or her office constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness.

(b) This Section 1 shall not limit a director's liability for monetary damages to the extent prohibited by the provisions of the Pennsylvania Nonprofit Corporation Law of 1988.

Section 2. Mandatory Indemnification of Directors and Officers. The Association shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify its directors and officers who were or are a party or are threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (whether or not such action, suit or proceeding arises or arose by or in the right of the Association or other entity) by reason of the fact that such director or officer is or was a director or officer of the Association or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a trustee, director, officer, employee, general partner, agent or fiduciary of another Association, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (including service with respect to employee benefit plans), against expenses (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and costs), judgments, fines (including excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such director or officer in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, except as otherwise provided in Section 4 hereof. A director or officer of the Association entitled to indemnification under this Section 2 is hereafter called a "person covered by Section 2 hereof."

Section 3. Expenses. Expenses incurred by a person covered by Section 2 hereof in defending a threatened, pending or completed civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Association, except as otherwise provided in Section 4.

Section 4. Exceptions. No indemnification under Section 2 or advancement or reimbursement of expenses under Section 3 shall be provided to a person covered by Section 2 hereof (a) if a final non-appealable judgment or award establishes that such director or officer engaged in self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness; (b) for expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement) which have been paid directly to such person by an insurance carrier under a policy of officers' and directors' liability insurance maintained by the Association or other enterprise; or (c) for amounts paid in settlement of any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding without the written consent of the Association, which written consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Board of Directors of the Association is hereby authorized, at any time by resolution, to add to the above list of exceptions from the right of indemnification under Section 2 or advancement or reimbursement of expenses under Section 3, but any such additional exception shall not apply with respect to any event, act or omission which has occurred prior to the date that the Board of Directors in fact adopts such resolution. Any such additional exception may, at any time after its adoption, be amended, supplemented, waived or terminated by further resolution of the Board of Directors of the Association.

Section 5. Continuation of Rights. The indemnification and advancement or reimbursement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article XIV shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Association, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

Section 6. General Provisions.

(a) The phrase "to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law," as used in this Article XIV, shall mean the maximum extent permitted by public policy, common law or statute. Any person covered by Section 2 hereof may, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, elect to have the right to indemnification or to advancement or reimbursement of expenses, interpreted, at such person's option (i) on the basis of the applicable law on the date this Article XIV was adopted, or (ii) on the basis of the applicable law in effect at the time of the occurrence of the event or events giving rise to the action, suit or proceeding, or (iii) on the basis of the applicable law in effect at the time indemnification is sought.

(b) The right of a person covered by Section 2 hereof to be indemnified or to receive an advancement or reimbursement of expenses pursuant to Section 3 (i) may also be enforced as a contract right pursuant to which the person entitled thereto may bring suit as if the provisions hereof were set forth in a separate written contract between the Association and such person, and (ii) shall continue to exist after the rescission or restrictive modification (as determined by such person) of this Article XIV with respect to events, acts or omissions occurring before such rescission or restrictive modification is adopted.

(c) If a request for indemnification or for the advancement or reimbursement of expenses pursuant hereto is not paid in full by the Association within thirty (30) days after a written claim has been received by the Association together with all supporting information reasonably requested by the Association, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Association to recover the unpaid amount of the claim (plus interest at the prime rate announced from time to time by the Association's primary banker) and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled also to be paid the expenses (including, but not limited to, attorney's fees and costs) of prosecuting such claim. Neither the failure of the Association (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its Members) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of or the advancement or reimbursement of expenses to the claimant is proper in the circumstances, nor an actual determination by the Association (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its Members) that the claimant is not entitled to indemnification or to the reimbursement or advancement of expenses, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant is not so entitled.

(d) The indemnification and advancement or reimbursement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article XIV shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement or reimbursement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of the Members or directors or otherwise, both as to action in such director's or officer's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding that office.

(e) Nothing contained in this Article XIV shall be construed to limit the rights and powers the Association possesses under Subchapter C of the Pennsylvania Nonprofit Corporation Law of 1988 (as amended from time to time), the Directors' Liability Act, or otherwise, including, but not limited to, the powers to purchase and maintain insurance, create funds to secure or insure its indemnification obligations, and any other rights or powers the Association may otherwise have under applicable law.

(f) The provisions of this Article XIV may, at any time (and whether before or after there is any basis for a claim for indemnification or for the advancement or reimbursement of expenses pursuant hereto), be amended, supplemented, waived, or terminated, in whole or in part, with respect to any person covered by Section 2 hereof by a written agreement signed by the Association and such person.

(g) The Association shall have the right to appoint the attorney for a person covered by Article XIV hereof, provided such appointment is not unreasonable under the circumstances.
