

THE PIRATE POST

Group Picture from Center Pocket, March 4th Friday event!

PG Pirates! As we spring into the season, we're excited to bring you a lineup of fun activities, meaningful events and opportunities to connect.

Reminder to vote in the 2026 NHAHA National Officers Election

Please cast your vote by April 1, 2026, at 11:59 PM. If you made a contribution to the University or NHAHA, Inc. within the past five years (as of June 30, 2025) and haven't received your ballot, contact Yes Elections at help+nhaa@yeselections.com or (866) 384-9978.

In honor of Women's History Month, test your knowledge of the remarkable women whose legacies have shaped and impacted Hampton University.

1. Who bravely taught enslaved and Contraband children under the Emancipation Oak before the formal establishment of Hampton Institute?
2. Who became the first African American to win an Academy Award for Costume Design and the first Black woman to win multiple Academy Awards in any category?
3. Who moved to the Hampton area in 1957 and worked on campus as a hostess at The Holly Tree Inn?

1. Mary S. Peck, 2. Ruth Carter, 3. Rosa Parks

Business Highlight: Cakery by Cornwall

This month we spotlight Danielle Cornwell, ONYX5 Class and founder of Cakery by Cornwall. Cakery by Cornwall is a boutique at-home baking business inspired by three generations of family bakers. The business specializes in custom cakes for corporate events, micro-weddings, and special celebrations, offering gourmet flavors for clients who value quality and care.
