SECTION VIII:

NOTARIZED AFFIDAVIT OF CHILD SUPPORT RECEIVED

Please list any and all amounts of money you received directly from the non-custodial parent, for the children listed in this application, below. If you have received any child support payments from both the non-custodial father and non-custodial mother you will need to fill this form out separately for each non-custodial parent.

If you DID NOT receive any child support payments from the Non-Custodial Parent, please complete part A and have the application signed and notarized.

If you DID receive child support payments from the non-custodial parent, complete parts A & B. Start with the most recent year you received child support and work backward.

A. I, _____, state the following to be records of any/all direct payments from _____.

Custodial Parent Name
Non-Custodial Parent Name

I DID NOT receive any child support payments from the Non-Custodial Parent listed in this application

I DID receive child support payments from the Non-Custodial Parent listed in this application. These payments were made directly to me and not through any Child Support Receiving Program. Please see below for the amount and months the payments were made.

B. Use the table below to indicate any child support payments received from the non-custodial parent listed in this application. Indicate the amount in the corresponding month you received them. If, at any time, the child(ren) were not in your care for 30 days or more put an "X" in that month and year.

Rights and Responsibilities

INTRODUCTION

Either a parent or a guardian/caretaker of a child may open a case with the Fort Belknap Child Support Program by completing an application.

You may retain your own attorney at your own expense. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program represents the public interest. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program Attorney does not represent any individual.

CLIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. You have the right to be treated in a fair and courteous manner by the Fort Belknap Child Support Program Staff.
2. It is your responsibility to complete an application with all supporting documents before services can be provided.
3. You must keep the Fort Belknap Child Support Program informed of any change in your address, phone number, employment, or marital status. You must also provide updated information about other participants in the case.
4. You must promptly inform the Fort Belknap Child Support Program of any changes in the physical custody of the children, modification of the support order, other collection actions, adoption proceedings, and any other matter that may affect or change the services the Fort Belknap Child Support Program is providing.
5. You must forward any information that adds to, differs from, or contradicts information in the Fort Belknap Child Support Program case so that it may be considered.
6. You must provide certified copies of all orders concerning your case. This includes actions that occur after Fort Belknap Child Support Program services begin.
7. You must immediately forward any support payment you receive that has not been issued by the Fort Belknap Child Support Program.
  - (a) You may be liable if the Fort Belknap Child Support Program takes an enforcement action because you failed to timely forward a payment.
  - (b) Credit will not be given unless payments are made through the Fort Belknap Child Support Program.
  - (c) Personally deliver all child support payments to:
Fort Belknap Child Support Program
781 Agency Main Street
Harlem, Montana 59526
  - Mail all child support payments to:
Fort Belknap Child Support Program
P.O. Box 683
Harlem, Montana 59526
8. You have the right to file a grievance with the Fort Belknap Child Support Program if you feel you have not been treated fairly.

PROGRAM SERVICES

1. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program Staff will treat all clients in a fair and courteous manner.
2. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program Staff will comply with the Fort Belknap Child Support Program Policies and Procedures and the Fort Belknap Child Support Program Codes to provide timely CS Services to each applicant.
3. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program will enter an order setting both parents support obligations when establishing or modifying a support order.
4. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program will collect medical support if it has been reduced to a judgment which is to be paid in a specific dollar amount.
5. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program, not a case participant, will determine the proper action or remedy to apply and the sequence of events, including the time frames within which each case will proceed. This includes attempts to establish paternity when necessary, secure financial and medical support and modify orders when appropriate.

6. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program will intercept federal and state income tax refunds when appropriate and apply them to the unpaid support debt. Persons receiving support may be required to repay intercepts if federal and state adjustments occur.
7. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program may charge an application fee. If another agency or entity charges collection fees, the Fort Belknap Child Support Program will pass on the cost to the person receiving support.
8. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program will collect interest on support debts only when the amount of unpaid interest is reduced to a lump sum judgment by an order. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program does not have the ability to calculate the amount of interest that may be due or that may become due. This limitation is not to be construed as a waiver of any right to collect interest independent of the Fort Belknap Child Support Program.
9. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program may seek reimbursement from persons who receive money to which they are not entitled. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program will provide an opportunity to repay or deny that money should be repaid. Failure to repay or deny within 10 days of notification allows the Fort Belknap Child Support Program to keep a portion of current support (and any amount that exceeds current support) for reimbursement. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program may also take action to recover these amounts either administratively or through a court order. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program is not required to collect amounts owed to the parent who paid the support.

OTHER INFORMATION

1. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program cannot guarantee success in establishing paternity, establishing a support order, or collecting support. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program may not be able to continue to provide services because of circumstances outside the Fort Belknap Child Support Program control. All warranties, expressed or implied, are specifically disclaimed. Please be aware the enforcement of child support is a complex undertaking. It will take time to process your case thoroughly.
2. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program requests your social security number and the social security numbers of the children and the children's parents. The numbers are necessary for case processing. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program may not be able to work your case without them. They are used as identifiers on the child support computer system. They are also used to credit payments, locate persons, and track case activities. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program will not release the numbers unless it is in the course of a Fort Belknap Child Support Program action to establish paternity or support; to enforce a financial or medical support obligation; or to modify a support obligation. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program cannot guarantee confidentiality these instances.
3. Information received becomes a part of the case record. The Fort Belknap Child Support Program may disclose this information, including your name, address, and phone number, to other parties in the case. If you believe the release of this information may put you or the children at risk, you must contact the Fort Belknap Child Support Program immediately. If the Fort Belknap Child Support Program determines there is a clear evidence or risk, your address and phone number will be removed from documents issued in the future. Additionally, if you have a protective or restraining order, please provide the Fort Belknap Child Support Program with a copy.
4. These terms and conditions govern all child support enforcement services. Any changes to the terms and conditions will not be binding until the Fort Belknap Child Support Program notifies you.
5. It is the policy of the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services to provide equal agency services to all persons regardless of race, color, religion, creed, sex, national origin, age, physical or mental disability, marital status, or political belief.
6. Alternative accessible formats of this document will be provided upon request.
