2026 RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE SALINE COUNTY FAIR

1. The Saline County Fair Association (SCFA) reserves the right to interpret its own rules and to make decisions on any matter.
2. All premiums will be paid by check by the SCFA treasurer.
3. No entrance fee may be charged to any department outlined in this book except commercial exhibits.
4. No claim for injury to any person or any damage to loss of property shall ever be asserted or suit instituted or maintained against the SCFA, its officers or their agents on behalf of any person, firm corporation, representative, servants, or employees having license to exhibit at said Fair and Livestock Show or occupying space on the fairgrounds, or present on said fairgrounds for any reason whatsoever. There will be security provided for livestock starting on Monday of fair week.
5. All property entered for competition, display or for any other purpose shall be subject to the rules and regulations prescribed by the SCFA.
6. In no case shall the SCFA or any of the officers or directors be held responsible for any loss, injury or death by diseases, theft or from any other cause to property while on the fairgrounds, or any other time or place. The management hereby assumes no responsibility, either as bailee or otherwise, for any property brought upon fairgrounds; all such property being brought and kept upon said ground shall be at owner's risk. If the property owners or others interested in the property desire protection against loss, damage, or injury from fires or from any other cause, they must make their own arrangements and pay for such insurance.
7. Ribbons will be awarded Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Best of Show, First, Second, and Third place.
8. Premiums will be paid from the awards as marked in the judge's book and not from the ribbons that may be attached to the exhibits. Ribbons sometimes become misplaced.
9. In awarding premiums, the decision of the judges will be final.
10. All exhibitors and their parents shall always be respectful. This includes but is not limited to the judges, their decisions, other exhibitors, parents, 4-H leaders, vo-ag teachers, visitors, fair property and all fair personnel. If found to be disrespectful at any time, exhibitors will forfeit all winnings and be excused from the livestock show by the SCFA Livestock Committee.

LIVESTOCK RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All livestock exhibits must be entered in the name of the owner.
2. The decision of the Saline County Fair Livestock Committee supersedes written rules.
3. The Saline County Fair Association (SCFA) reserves the right to interpret its own rules and to make decisions on any matter.
4. All Breeding Livestock Exhibits must be entered by midnight, Monday, Aug. 31, 2026. Enter online: <https://saline.fairwire.com>
Market animals have special requirements. Please read the information on their specific page.
5. All health papers must be produced to the Livestock Superintendent upon entry of fairgrounds.
6. The Saline County Fair will be open to receive Livestock Exhibits on Monday, Sept. 7 from 2:00-4:00 pm and Tuesday, Sept. 8 from 9:00 am – 6:00 pm.
7. Livestock Exhibits may be checked out on Saturday, Sept. 12 between 9:00 - 11:00 pm.
8. No adults will be allowed to compete in the Junior Show. This Junior show is open to active 4-H and FFA members only. Active Membership Requirement: an exhibitor is considered an active member if they have attended a minimum of six (6) 4-H or FFA meetings, activities, or events within the past 12 months. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to ensure their attendance is documented and verified by their club leader.
9. Where no competition is present in any class, the judges may award first, second or third to the entry.
10. All entries in the Livestock Department will be shown, even though the entry may have no competition.
11. All registered animals must be registered in the exhibitor's name and have a registration certificate at time of entry. No pending registration will be accepted.
12. Water for livestock will be furnished by SCFA, but owners are required to provide waterers, feeders, feed and care for their animals.
13. All owners of livestock, poultry, or any other items or types of property of every character or others having the same in charge, shall care for, guard, protect and preserve the same as the SCFA does not undertake to do, and it shall not be held responsible for any loss or damage to said property or the owners thereof.
14. The SCFA sponsors the Junior Market Animal Show and Sale, except for animals entering this division and sold at the Junior Market Animal Sale. All other sales of any animal or other articles entered for exhibit are private transactions between buyer and seller. No animals will be offered at auction except those entered as a Junior Department Market Steer, Junior Department Market Swine, Junior Department Market Goat, and Junior Department Market Lamb. Each exhibitor will be limited to selling one per species in the Junior Livestock Auction.
15. All cattle shown by junior exhibitors should be halter broken and should be haltered.
16. All cattle are required to wear a rope necktie
17. The premises in the cattle barn, the swine pens, and the poultry and rabbit building shall be kept clean by exhibitors and shall be cleaned promptly upon request of the Livestock and Poultry Superintendent. Wheelbarrows will be provided for removing manure.
18. No livestock shall be tied outside designated barns unless arrangements are made with the Superintendent.
19. Any exhibitor unable to tend to animals and who does not make arrangements for feeding, watering and cleaning bedding area may be subject to forfeiture of any and all premium monies (at the discretion of SCFA Livestock Committee).
20. Any exhibitor caught selling two market animals of the same species in another exhibitor's name will be on probation for two years and will not be allowed to sell any livestock in sale for that same period of time.

21. No exhibitor/owner is responsible for accidental breeding.
22. Only pure bred, pure blood (1 pure bred parent) livestock or animals equal to breed association, per book quality are admitted except for commercial classes. Poultry and rabbits are accepted.
23. All breeding animals must be owned and in the possession of the exhibitor by July 1, 2026. Market Animals are addressed in each species section.
24. Your animal can only be exhibited by one exhibitor excluding the Old Timer Show and Pee Wee Show.
25. Market Animals will be weighed in on Tuesday at 7:00 pm.
26. All exhibitors and their parents shall always be respectful. This includes but is not limited to the judges, their decisions, other exhibitors, parents, 4-H leaders, vo-ag teachers, visitors, fair property and all fair personnel. If found to be disrespectful at any time, exhibitors will forfeit all winnings and be excused from the livestock show by the SCFA Livestock Committee.

EXHIBITION HEALTH REQUIREMENTS FOR LIVESTOCK, POULTRY AND EXOTIC ANIMALS' GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

1. CERTIFICATES OF VETERINARY INSPECTION AND ENTRY PERMITS: "Certificate of veterinary inspection" refers to a legible record (made on an official form issued from the state of origin) by an accredited veterinarian which shows that the animals listed thereon meet health requirements of the state of destination. It must bear the identification of each animal and separate certificates must be made for each species of animal entered. Entry permits are required on all out-of-state-swine, rodeo bulls unless they are tested within 30 days of entry (psittacines, passerines, ratites, all other avian species except poultry and turkeys, cervids, camelids or exotic animal). Permit numbers can be obtained from the state veterinarian's office (501) 907-2400 from 8:00 am - 4:30 pm Monday - Friday.
 - a. A certificate of veterinary inspection must accompany all out-of-state animals; and must be available on request by animal health officials; individually identify all animals, showing positive identification of each animal by tattoo, ear tag, registration number or ear notch. Steers should be identified by description.
 - b. Show required tests, vaccinations, and entry permit number, if applicable.
 - c. Show name and address of owner or exhibitor - this shall be the same name as under which animals are exhibited.
2. Any animal or poultry showing any evidence of infectious or contagious disease, or of external parasitism, and animals with active ringworm lesions (with the resulting loss of hair) multiple warts easily visible without close examination or atrophic rhinitis, will not be permitted to exhibit.
3. All animals entering the grounds must meet the requirements of their species.
4. All animals originating out-of-area quarantined because of other diseases (vesicular stomatitis, scabies, etc.) shall not be permitted to enter.

ARKANSAS LIVESTOCK

Arkansas livestock (except for Arkansas sheep, goats, horses, steers, and rabbits) must be accompanied by a certificate of veterinary inspection issued within ninety (90) days prior to exhibition, showing the following:

Arkansas Cattle

1. All breeding cattle must be identified by an official USDA radio frequency identification (RFID) ear tag, commonly referred to as an "840 RFID tag," or an equivalent. To order Official Identification Devices (RFID Tags) Call: 501-823-1722.
2. If Arkansas is a Class Free State, Arkansas cattle are exempt from brucellosis testing. If Arkansas is not a class free state, then the following testing requirements must be met: Negative brucellosis test within ninety (90) days prior to exhibition, for females and bulls eighteen (18) months of age or over. All heifers that have calved or are bred must be tested. Animals originating from a certified brucellosis free herd are exempt if the certified free herd number is shown on the certificate.
3. All heifers that are four to twelve (4-12) months of age shall be vaccinated before entering show.
4. Heifers over 12 months of age may show without brucellosis vaccination.

Arkansas Swine

1. All swine must be identified by an official USDA radio frequency identification (RFID) ear tag, commonly referred to as an "840 RFID tag," or an equivalent. To order Official Identification Devices (RFID Tags) Call: 501-823-1722.
2. Animals six (6) months old or older need to be tested negative for brucellosis within ninety (90) days of exhibition or originate directly out of a validated herd with validation number and date of last herd test shown on certificate (barrows exempt from brucellosis testing but must be pseudo rabies tested).
3. Animals need to be tested negative for pseudo rabies regardless of age within ninety (90) days of the exhibition on a test approved by the state veterinarian or originate directly out of a qualified pseudo rabies free herd, with qualified herd number and date of last test shown on certificate.
4. Free of other contagious, infectious, and communicable diseases (erysipelas, atrophic rhinitis, etc.), otherwise they will not be allowed to show and will be released from the fairgrounds.

Arkansas Sheep and Goats

1. Exhibition officials must maintain records of all sheep and goats that are exhibited for a period of five years to include:
 - a. Identification number
 - b. Flock status as defined by the Voluntary Flock Certification Program
 - c. Fair personnel, veterinarians, or state-federal personnel may examine sheep on grounds.
2. Any sheep showing clinical symptoms of Scrapie shall be immediately quarantined in isolation and required to undergo any approved diagnostic tests and shall be consigned to slaughter or destruction with submission of tissues to an approved diagnostic laboratory at the exhibitor's expense. Commingling (as defined by the AR Scrapie Regulation) of sheep or goats of different flock status as defined by the Voluntary Flock certification Program (VFCP) is prohibited and must be reported to the VFCP state official and State Veterinarian.
3. NO sheep or goats showing symptoms of disease, particularly foot rot, sore mouth, sheep pox, evidence of fungal infection, and evidence of abscesses will be allowed to show and may be released by fair officials, veterinarians, or state/federal personnel.
4. All Sheep and Goats are required to have a Premise I.D. Scrapie Tag for exhibition at the County, District and State fair. If they are registered goats or sheep, and they have a registration tattoo, and the owner brings the registration papers with them then you do not have to have a scrapie tag in the ear. On all non-registered goats, meat type or any type of goat not registered must have a scrapie tag in the ear. For more information contact the AR Livestock and Poultry Commission at 501-225-1598.

Arkansas Rabbits

1. Rabbits will be inspected on grounds. No rabbits showing symptoms of disease will be allowed to show.

Arkansas Camelids

1. Individual identified and certificate of veterinary inspection within ninety (90) days of exhibition
2. Registration papers, when accompanied by registry photographs of the animal, are acceptable identification

Arkansas Poultry

An official representing the exhibition shall notify the state veterinarian no later than thirty (30) days prior to the exhibition, giving names, place, inclusive dates, and time of the event. The requirements are as follows:

1. All in-state poultry, which includes domesticated game birds, quail, pheasants, peafowl, guineas, ducks, and turkeys, present at exhibition in Arkansas shall have originated from U.S. Pullorum-Typhoid clean or equivalent flocks or have had a negative pullorum-typhoid test within ninety (90) days of the movement to the exhibition. (Pullorum-typhoid testing on fairgrounds during the fair is prohibited.) This information or similar certificate which will accompany the poultry during exhibition.
2. All non-certified birds must be banded (leg or wing band), with a sealed band, Wrap-around plastic bands are not acceptable. In-state waterfowl are exempt from pullorum-typhoid requirements.
3. Any poultry showing evidence of infectious or contagious disease or insect infestation will not be permitted to be exhibited.
4. Record keeping - The sponsor of the exhibition shall compile a list of all poultry present at the exhibition. The list shall contain the name and address of each owner, the number, the species, breed variety, type, sex and pullorum-typhoid status of all poultry present. A copy of this shall be retained by the sponsor of the exhibition for at least twelve (12) months.

Scent Work (TIMED) Fun Run

Container Novice Class - The official time shall start when the dog's nose crosses the start line, or when any part of the handler's body crosses the start line, whichever is first. The official time shall stop when the handler calls "Alert". Novice classes shall utilize Birch only.

Container Novice Class - Ten identical cardboard box containers are laid out on the floor of the search area. The boxes are arranged in two rows of five containers. Each box must be at least 12" apart, and each row must be at least 36" apart. The search area must be at least 250 and no more than 400 square feet. One of the containers holds the target odor of Birch. The dog has two minutes to locate the container with the target scent and communicate the find to its handler. The handler must call "Alert" when the dog indicates the find.

Barn Hunt (TIMED) Fun Run

RULES:

1. Handlers may not bring food or toys into the ring.
2. Handlers may not touch/pat, lean on, pick up, sit on or step on/over any bales, boards, steps or other course materials.

Novice:

Entering the Ring and Releasing the Dog

1. Dogs may be carried into the ring if they are of a size to be comfortably carried
2. The dog must remain on the leash until the gate is secure, after which it may be removed at any time.
3. Handlers must wait for the Judge to verbally instruct them with a command such as "go when ready," before releasing their dog. If a team leaves the box before being verbally released by the judge it is a False Start. Handlers are allowed to take a few moments to get their dogs settled and focused after the Judge's verbal prompt to go.
4. Time starts when any part of the handler or dog exits the start box after the verbal instruction from the Judge

While In the Ring

There will be one rate, one litter only, and one empty container.

Handlers may: a) Move around the course while the dog works to be able to view and call the mark of the correct live rat tube. b) Speak and gesture at will and verbally praise and encourage the dog to search certain areas. c) Tip up or move a bale to access a tube for removal. d) Use an obedience command such as stay/wait, sit or down.

Handlers may not: a) Bring food/toys into the ring. b) Touch/pat, lean on, pick up, sit on, or step on/over any bales, boards, steps, or other course materials.

OLD TIMERS SHOW

Are you a 4-H or FFA alum? Do you miss your time in the ring? We've got you covered this year at the Fair! Showmen who have aged out of 4-H and/or FFA will be able to relive their glory days at the Old Timers Show Saturday, Sept. 12 at 4:00 pm. Since only animals that have been checked in on Tuesday and meet all health and registration requirements can be shown, our current exhibitors will volunteer their animals. We encourage exhibitors to dress in the era they showed or come as you are. Arrive between 3:30-4:00 pm to check-in and register if you haven't already. There will be a $10 entry fee and the funds go to improve the livestock area.

QUALIFICATIONS & RULES:

1. A contestant must legally reside or attend school (academic) in Saline County for one full semester immediately preceding the contest.
2. The Jr. Miss and Ms. Saline County Fair Queens will be REQUIRED to compete in the Arkansas State Fair Pageant.
3. Little Miss will have the option to compete at District Fair.
4. Contestants are required to be on time for all events. Absent or tardy contestants may be disqualified at the discretion of the Pageant Director. If you are unable to attend or be on time due to an emergency, contact Tara Shelton at 501-317-8239 as soon as possible.
5. NO ENTRY FORMS WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER AUG. 22, 2026. Entry forms will be accepted online only. You may enter and pay online by scanning the QR code below.
6. A dressing area for contestants will be provided. One chaperone per contestant will be allowed backstage, NO EXCEPTIONS. Contestants are subject to disqualification at the discretion of the Pageant Director for failure to comply.
7. The reigning Saline County Fair Queen must always conduct herself properly. Inappropriate behavior bringing unfavorable publicity to herself and/or the Saline County Fair may result in the Fair Queen relinquishing her title and the forfeiture and return of all prizes and monetary awards.
8. Any display of poor sportsmanship and/or unbecoming conduct, any interference and/or disturbance, or any other behavioral problem created by a contestant, companion, parent, relative, or supporter of a contestant could result in disqualification of the contestant from this year's contest and all future contests.
9. The Saline County Fair Pageant Director reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out of or connected with, or incident to the contest, and the right to amend or add to these rules as their judgment may determine. Any contestant who fails to abide by any of the above rules can be disqualified from the contest.

BEAUTY (Boys and Girls 0-13 years):

Contestants will be judged on modeling, attire, poise, beauty, and personality.

- MODELING - Diamond/Figure 8. No routines. Walk and model while letting your personality show! No points will be deducted for pattern.
- ATTIRE - Pageant dress or Sunday Best dresses for girls. Tuxedo or Sunday Best for boys. Age appropriateness is taken into consideration. Attire score will be based on fit and fun. Attire should be something your child loves and can show off!!
- POISE - Confidence counts!! Chin up, shoulders back, and Take the Stage!
- BEAUTY - All our contestants are beautiful, but too much makeup, fake hair, flippers, spray tans, etc. will lose your points. Keep it naturally beautiful!
- PERSONALITY - We are looking for someone who we will be proud representing Saline County! Let it Shine!

PHOTOGENIC:

All photogenic entries are due with entry form. If sending through the mail, please ensure the photo will not be damaged or bent. The Saline County Fair Pageant is not responsible for lost or damaged entries. All photos should be no larger than 8x10. Black and white or color photos are accepted. Contestants will be judged on natural photogenic qualities, age appropriateness, quality of photo, and over-all impression. Please NO GLITZ PHOTOS.

One photogenic entry is included in the entry fee. Additional entries may be added for $10/photo but only the top scoring photo for each contestant will count toward the division title score.

INTERVIEW (Jr. Miss, Miss, Ms. and Sr. Ms.):

This private, timed, five-minute interview is a great opportunity to showcase your personality to the judging panel. Come prepared to talk about the topics on your entry form, current events, the fair in general, etc.

PARADE OF CONTESTANTS:

This is the opening number. You'll walk up to the mic and say a fun introduction. Example: your name and your county.

INTERVIEW/PARADE OF CONTESTANTS ATTIRE:

Think bright, fun with flair, yet professional. Pantsuit, casual dress, jumpsuit, skirt, etc. This outfit will be what you wear for the interview and the parade of contestants.

EVENING GOWN (Jr. Miss, Miss, Ms. and Sr. Ms.):

A Contestant may wear a gown of choice. The gown must be age appropriate. This phase will be judged on confidence, state presence, eye contact, posture, walking and modeling, appropriate choice of gown for her age, and overall impression.

DRESSING & BACKSTAGE:

The Saline County Fair Association is not responsible for loss or damage to clothing or other personal items left in the dressing room or in other areas. Only one chaperone per contestant will be allowed in the dressing room. Failure to comply with the rule will result in disqualification. No makeup artists or hairdressers are allowed backstage.

JUDGING:

The judges will be appointed by the Saline County Fair Pageant Director. They will be well qualified people to judge a contest of this kind. Their decision will be final. Scores and critiques will be provided upon emailed request within 7 days of the contest.

JUNIOR FAIR QUEEN DUTIES:

During her reign, the Saline County Fair Queens are required to attend the following events on our behalf: The Saline County Fair and Rodeo, The Saline County Fair Parade (Sept. 8), and various Saline County Fair functions. All other appearances must be scheduled through the Saline County Fair Pageant Director.
