Painting Cactus

You were expecting "Texture and Techniques" with Dura Dittmar this month, but she has had a family emergency, so your guest artist is Barbara Mauldin.

"Life is a Struggle" 24x20"

We will get back to Dura when her life settles down.

Barbara Mauldin is your DK Newsletter editor/DK Secretary and a local artist who is represented by the Charles Morin Fine Art Gallery on Main Street in Fredericksburg. She and husband Chuck have been living and painting in Fredericksburg since 2005. She loves to paint the Texas landscape, and she is especially fond of painting prickly pear cactus. "I enjoy finding imperfections, variety in colors on the pads, and the play of light and shadow on the cactus pads. Right now the prickly pear is starting to bloom, and my work to collect reference photos for the coming year begins!"

Barbara uses a limited palette in her cactus paintings: Ultramarine Blue, Quinacridone Red, and Cadmium Yellow Lemon. Cadmium Yellow Medium (Gamblin) and Indian Yellow are held in reserve as needed. Her style is impressionistic, and she is known for her use of color.

"I will talk about composition, values, edges, and color – the basics – and we will explore these elements as I create a cactus painting."

"Hidden Treasures" 22x28"

DK COMMITTEES

You can still join a committee! Some committees do not have a chairman or co-chair. The committees are asked to choose someone to be their spokesman at their first meeting. Please meet during the month of May and report back to the Board of Directors by June 1.
