

The Smoky Mountain Wood Carvers Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping woodcarvers in all phases of woodcarving.

Our meetings are very informal and actively promote and support all phases of woodcarving. Some of the benefits of membership provide are:

Informal classes/seminars conducted by knowledgeable club members.

Tips on carving techniques, tool selection, wood characteristics, mounting and finishing.

Club library has books and videos available for loan.

Hold an annual woodcarving show and competition

Last but not least....fellowship

If you are a woodcarver, want to be a woodcarver or just want to observe carvers created wonderful works of art come on down and see people carving and enjoying each other's company.
