

Born and raised in the Lonestar State of Texas, one could argue that Kim Wadsworth's comedy career began when she was voted Class Clown at Alvarado High School.

Since officially diving into stand up comedy, she has gone on to perform at clubs and festivals all over the country.

A proud Air Force veteran and mother, Kim is a powerful voice within the LGBTQIA+ community. Her unique experiences, whimsical wordplay, and likable stage presence have lead her to win many comedy competitions over the years. She is managed by Dante Rusciolelli at Golden Artists Entertainment.

Check out her debut album,
"No Contest".
