BIO

Alvarado High School’s “Class Clown” of 1985, Kim Wadsworth is a proud Air Force veteran who uses all five of her senses to find funny wherever she goes. She is unconventional, with piercings, a Mohawk, and a sarcastic style that is uniquely her own. She performs improv and sketch comedy, as well as stand up. Kim has been seen at the Women in Comedy Festival in Boston and the Dallas Comedy Festival. She will take the stage at the Pensacola Pre-Pride Comedy Festival and the Midwest Queer Comedy Festival in Chicago in 2021. This prize-winning comedian feels that laughter has no limitations and life is a thrill sport. She encourages everyone to join her for the wild and hilarious ride.
