

Silver Buckle Rodeo Royalty Contest Information

- Rodeo Royalty:
 - Queen Contestant must be 16-19 years old as of January 1, 2026. To advance to the Miss CCPRA contest, you must be 17 years old to compete.
 - Princess Contestant must be 10-15 years old as of January 1, 2026.
 - Junior Princess Contestant must be 6-9 years old as of January 1, 2026.
- Contestants must have resided in Plumas County for at least 6 months prior to application deadline.
- Contestants must provide their own horse and transportation.
- Contestant must become a member of the Indian Valley Riding & Roping Club to enter contest and use arena.
- Contestants are allowed to secure sponsors to offset the costs of competing.
- Contestants must use same horse for all phases of the contest including the practices, horsemanship contest, parade, and grand entry. Exception only given with letter from certified veterinarian or by permission of contest coordinator.
- Contestants must assist with tickets sells for the 4th of July Rodeo Raffle.
- Contestants must dress appropriately at all official functions where they represent the Indian Valley Riding & Roping Club.
- Contestants may elect to use a cowboy hat helmet if desired for added safety.
- The 2024 Silver Buckle Rodeo Queen, Princess and Junior Princess will be expected to represent the Indian Valley Riding & Roping Club at the following events in full dress (Western Attire, Cowboy Hat with Crown, Chaps and/or Sash):
 - Taylorsville Junior Rodeo 2026
 - IVRRC Christmas Party 2026
 - Taylorsville 4th of July Parade & Rodeo 2026 & 2027
 - Rodeo Royalty Contest 2027
 - any other events where IVRRC is asked to sponsor or be present
- The Rodeo Queen, Princess and Junior Princess are each awarded a buckle.
- Rodeo Royalty Applications due May 1, 2026.
- Rodeo Royalty Competition June 21, 2026, at 3pm, IVRRC Rodeo Grounds
- Contestants must meet with Rodeo Royalty Contest coordinator for rules and regulations of the royalty contest.

Please mail, hand deliver or email applications to:

Jill Simon, Rodeo Royalty Contestant Coordinator

PO Box 134 Taylorsville, CA 95983

mustangjill@comcast.net