TRUSTING GOD'S PURPOSE

Proverbs 19:21

OUR PLANS MAY CHANGE.
GOD'S PURPOSE DOES NOT

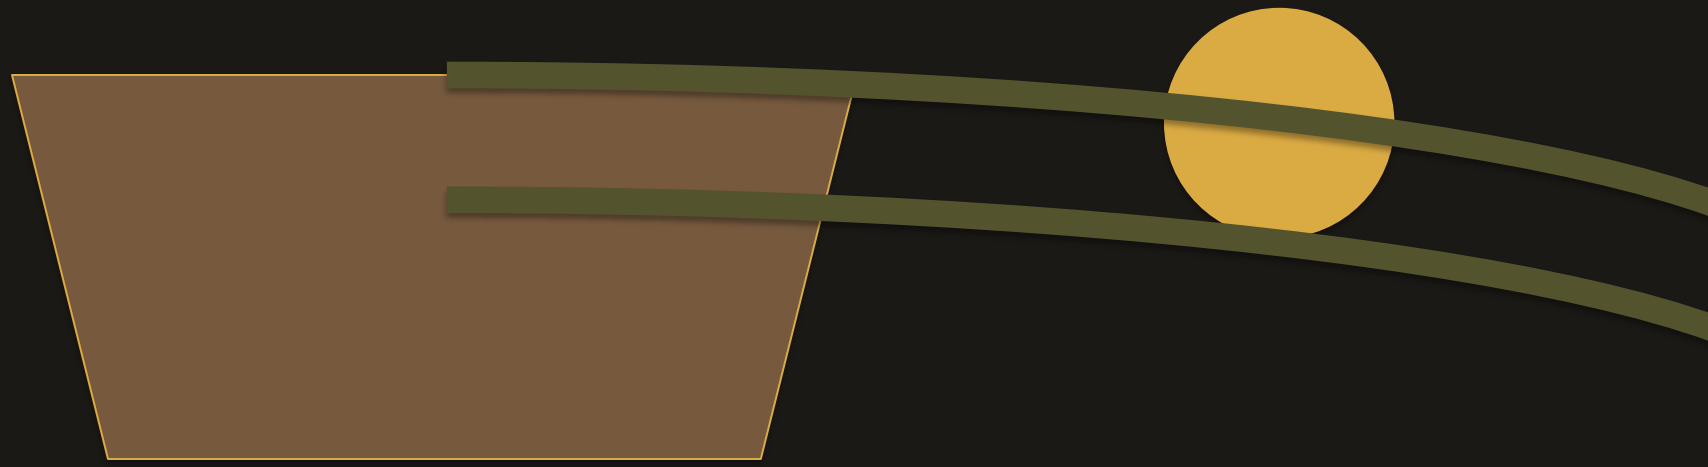

- How to trust God when life does not go according to our plans
- The difference between our plans and God’s purpose
- How prayer and Scripture help us recognize God’s direction
- Why surrender is an important part of trusting God
- How can we remain faithful while waiting for God’s purpos to unfold

Proverbs 19:21

"Many are the plans in a person's heart, but it is the LORD's purpose that prevails."

Human beings can make plans, but God remain sovereign over the ultimate outcome.

Literary Context …

- ✓ “Many are the plans in a person’s heart”
- ✓ “But it is the Lord’s purpose that prevails”

Our plans are limited, while God’s purpose is ultimately decisive.

Proverbs 16:9

"In their hearts humans plan their course, but the Lord establishes their steps."

Biblical Interpretation … three important truths

1. God has ultimate authority.
2. Planning is Not Wrong.
3. Delay does not always mean denial.
4. God’s purpose will prevail.

Biblical Interpretation … three important truths

1 God has ultimate authority.

Biblical Interpretation … three important truths

2

Planning is not wrong …

The key is where we place our trust.

A faithful attitude is: “Lord, here are my plans, but I trust You with the outcome

Biblical Interpretation … three important truths

3 God's purpose will prevail

"prevails"

Spiritual Application

- Trust God When Your Plans Change.

Why didn’t my plan? … Lord, what are You teaching me in this season, and how can I follow Your purpose?

Spiritual Application

- ✓ Surrender Your plans to God.

James 4:15 - "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that."

Spiritual Application

- ✓ Don’t confuse delay with denial.

Spiritual Application

- ✓ Find purpose in every season.

Spiritual Application

- ✓ Trust God with the unknown.

We may not know what tomorrow holds, but we know who holds tomorrow.

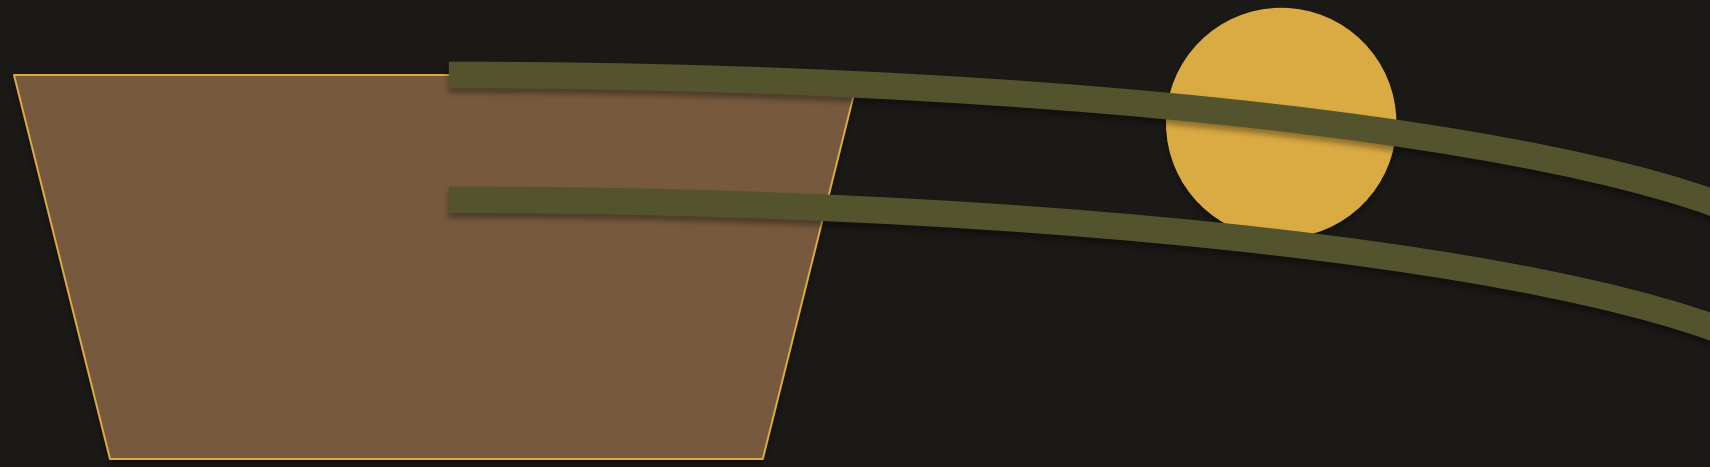

Summary

Proverbs 19:21 reminds us that human beings plan, but God has the final purpose.

God is still working

Key Takeaway…

"I can make plans, but I will trust God with the outcome."

Our plans may change.
Our circumstances may change.
But God remains faithful,
and His purpose will prevail.

