2021-2022 TREE QUILT CHALLENGE

Jan Carpenter was kind enough to take photos of all the quilts at the December meeting. But we had a technical difficulty with the photos, so I did not include pictures of the Tree Challenge quilts in the January newsletter. Some of you may have worked on that quilt more than a year, or had to look at it hanging on your design wall forever. We thought your patience and talents should be recognized. Here they are!!
