FALL TO-DO LIST

It's that time of year again. No, it's not about fall and all those leaves to rake, or Thanksgiving or Christmas either.

It's time to renew your membership for 2019, and review information for our directory. Dues remain $20; when you reach 80 years of age, you become an honorary member and no longer pay dues. We will contact you about your entry and a photo for the new directory. In order to be included in the 2019 directory, pay your dues by the December meetings. Bring a check payable to CVQG to the next meeting.

Lily Boutique Used Book Sale by Diana Weber

Y'all donated so many books and magazines that I feared for the integrity of my living room floor with its 40+ year old floor joists. They groaned in protest but ultimately held up.

And can I just add this? Some people donated magazines that were so old....[Reader: how old were they, Diana?] They were so old that they were in Greek with Egyptian hieroglyphs for illustrations!

Despite that, we managed to dispose of ALL the magazines, and the remaining books went to a mission in Florida where Eve Agee's daughter works with immigrant women teaching them sewing skills and possibly another language (probably English, not Greek).

While my only focus was getting the pile out of the house, it turns out we helped so many more people than ourselves in ways we will never know. We paid it forward. Thanks to the membership for contributing and especially Debby and David Annas as well as Dianne and Danny Black all of whom loaded, unloaded and *schlepped countless materials back and forth.

*Yiddish (or New Yorker) for carrying a heavy load.

DEAR APPLE, "YALL" IS A WORD SO PLEASE STOP CHANGING IT TO TALL, HALL, AND FALL.

THANK YOU, SINCERELY, THE SOUTHERN U.S.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

If you joined our guild recently, please send us a selfie or picture to include in our newsletter and directory. We have over 130 members now, and we like/need a visual clue to new folks' names.

Your picture will appear in this New Member column and in our 2019 directory. So send that picture to gmadidi7@gmail.com. Thanks.

2018 QUILT SHOW RECAP: WE DID IT!!

Congratulations to us all for a successful quilt show! Amazing how it all came together for a grand celebration of our collective quilts and guild talents. Sure was a lot of work all along the way, but personally, I have to say it is worth it all in every way! And what fun we all had!

It is with profound gratitude to each of you, your family and friends for all your efforts for our successful show. We were very successful with our raffle quilts, Lily Boutique, volume of quilts entered, judging process and all the set up and take down. It does take a village and the collective work of all our members to pull off a quilt show of this magnitude. Never ending thanks for all your support along the way with my role serving as the quilt show chair. You all made this job easier and actually fun. I have appreciated getting to know you and all that makes our guild a fantastic group.

We are very eager to hear what each of you thought of the quilt show, including any suggestions for changes. Please do complete the attached member survey. You can print the survey form, write your thoughts and bring to the joint November 8th Guild Meeting. We will have a collection box for your survey responses and Barb Davis will be collecting them. You can also send me an electronic copy or snail mail. We are trying to make it as easy as we can to complete your survey.

We will have a QS Celebration event at our joint December meeting, complete with a little entertainment. Will share our financial detail, survey responses from vendor, attendees and guild members. We have a few surprises and prizes too. It will be our Quilt Show wrap up!

If you were unable to attend the Show or if you would like to share a Program Booklet with your advertising contact or anyone else, we will have extra program booklets available.

Also we will be having a post show quilt show meeting November 29, Thursday 11:30 to 1:00 pm for Chair Person summaries and general discussions. Meeting is open to all guild members, encourage and welcome your participation.

Here's to sewing for ourselves, family community project and time to do so!

Happiest Thanksgiving Celebrations!

Kay Dwyer Dwyerdk@gmail.com 734.660.7950

From Kathleen Sigmon and Karen Berlin:

Thank you all so much for your hard work selling tickets for the raffle quilt.

Although we held sales at various venues, the vast majority of sales came from individual members.

We were able to set a new record!

NOVEMBER PROGRAM NOTE BY GIGI MILLER

November's combined evening meeting will be one you will not want to miss. Bring a friend and enjoy being inspired by nationally recognized speaker and quilter, Susan Brubaker Knapp who will share a lecture/trunk show titled "Point, Click, Quilt", an inspirational and detailed look at her process in creating award winning, photo inspired quilts. Lecture begins at 6:30 in the chapel at Holy Trinity.

She will also present a workshop Thursday (Nov. 8) morning in our meeting room from 9-3 entitled Thread Stitch Dragonfly. There are 5 seats available in this class. On Saturday (Nov. 10) her lecture comes to life in another workshop on how to turn a photo into a quilt. Two seats are available in this class.

Contact Gigi Miller about workshops gigim@charter.net. Sign up info on p. 6.

Quilt of Valor Recipients

Michael Biggs, made by Carol Carmen. Quilted by Karen Bronson.

Susan Howell, Rev William Howell, and Donald Alexander made by Rosalyn Gardner, Peggy McCosh, Ann Lutz, and Rebecca Mullins

Danny Setzer, made by Dottie Williams and presented by
