Party fact sheet (Bushcraft)

Dear Party organizer,

Thank you for your email enquiring about our Bushcraft/ Survival skills party's.

I have enclosed terms and conditions and a booking form, on signing and returning the booking form that is agreeing to our terms and conditions. With all party's the activities will be adjusted to suit the group and their abilities.

Weather

Depending on the time of year you wish to have the party, weather conditions can and will play a large part in this event. There is no reason, whatever the weather the party cannot go ahead, but you would need to make sure that all participants were aware that they would be outside for the full length of time, it is a survival party (I have a fact sheet for group organisers to hand to parents explaining what each young person would need to wear to get the best out of the experience).

Numbers

The party plan is for 10 to 12 young people at a time, if you want to add up to 20 Max please add £50.00 per hour to cover extra staff/ equipment needed to run the sessions.

Party organiser /Adults

With any party there is always a couple of adults /Parents that stay, if you're happy with that, I don't have a problem with it, but the focus is the young people. (And yes they can have a go if they don't interfere). Please remember the organizer is responsible for the children's behaviour, and conduct while on activities, unruly children will be asked to leave the event into the care of the party organizer.

Food

You can't have a Bushcraft party without food, so we cook toasted marshmallows and stewed apples, chocolate bananas on the fires that the young people build, some groups like to throw a BBQ. We can provide a BBQ, if you supply the food and somebody to cook it,

Location

We use many different locations, the main location for this event is Honley woods, we meet behind wood nook stables, at the top of Meltham road, HD9 4HL. We can come you, and use your own garden if it's big enough.

I hope the information above answers all your questions, but if I've missed anything please let me know

If you would like to book a party, please email me for a booking form,

Hope to hear from you soon
