Hello Jennifer I appreciate you adding me. I would like to thank you for thinking about me. I'm glad that at least something positive has come from my situation & people being sensitive to not only me but incarcerated people in general. The circumstances in here are tragic! I live in a unit with black mold everywhere. I am allergic to not only this mold, but our contaminate drinking water as well. I live in constant pain with no reprieve. I can't seem to find much help. I grieve the wrong done to me by administration, but not only does nothing get done.? I am constantly reailiated against for speaking out. This situation is meant to be kept under wraps & ANYONE who, speaks against the wrong being done to prisoners under the guise of "rehabilitation" is silenced. Some are tired of being the only ones fighting & some like myself.? Their strength wanes after incurring these conditions for years. The wear & tear on my body is painful & they do nothing to address the actual issue or relieve my pain. I swell from my severe allergic reactions, to the point I can hardly make my hands or legs move. I force a smile everyday while I suffer to no end. I need help, but it won't come from administration & I'm sure it won't come from inside this prison. I pray I can one day touch someone's heart that hears about my story... to not only help me.? But help the women in this prison who also suffer but don't have a voice to speak out. Again, I thank you whole heartedly for contacting me.!
