Any agreement to sell a home must be contained on seller's purchase and sale agreement forms and signed by both parties. Any other written or oral response to this offer form will not create a binding agreement. Seller retains the right to select prospective buyers or accept offers to purchase in its sole and absolute discretion. Seller makes homes available for sale to all persons without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, or other characteristics protected by law. Lennar reserves the right to change this process at any time. By participating in this offer only process, customer agrees that any claims or disputes relating to the process will be resolved by binding arbitration as described in <https://www.lennar.com/termsandconditions>. Registration must be completed on the first visit with the New Home Consultant. To qualify for any applicable commission/bonus, registration must occur on the first visit and broker/agent must execute Lennar's Cooperating Broker Agreement and otherwise comply with Lennar's Broker Participation Policy.
