

A Glimpse
In My Closet

A NOVEL BY DELILAH & RAFA MAYOL

DEDICATIONS

Delilah

To those in my life, mostly, to my love, Sebastian, who experienced the craziness that I sometimes bring to our lives. Some were imposed and many were self-imposed, especially the ones that ended with ###Lights Out###. I hope those that read the novel realize that in life, we learn from our mistakes, and if love is real, it can conquer all.

To Rafa Mayol, my dear friend, for putting pen to paper and helping me tell my story. This wouldn't have happened without your love, dedication to detail and your gift to write. Love you always, Delilah.

Rafa Mayol

To my wife, kids and my family, for allowing me the time away from our daily routines to spend time writing Lilah's story. I love you all.

To all those that added their input - Cindy, Gigi, Sebastian and everyone else that were part of the story that was told. To those that we lost and to those that are not doing well, you will always be in our hearts and prayers. To Lilah, Love you always. Last, but not least. A special thank you, to Donna Ann Torre for spending the time with me back and forth on editing the novel.

God Bless
