The 7th Annual Alabama Women in Jazz Festival goes virtual!

Valley Arts and Entertainment will host the event on September 11th and 12th

Huntsville, AL: The event lineup launches with Ginetta's Vendetta©, renowned pocket trumpet artist and the event's featured performing artist, who will also stream a FREE musical workshop on September 11. Her performance is scheduled on September 12, 2020. Ginetta's Vendetta's© appearance is made possible by grants from the Alabama State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts. Additional performances at this year's Alabama Women in Jazz Festival include Anisha Rush, Hope Clayburn, Ruby Camille, Yuressa Shonta, Wellington Bullings, and surprise special guests.

"Like everyone else, we've had to pivot this year," explains Patrice Bivins, founder of Valley Arts and Entertainment. "This year will be different as we have modified our performances to be safely recorded remotely in homes, studios and at partner venues like Stovehouse and Dazzle."

Valley Arts and Entertainment requested and received emergency preparedness funding from Performing Arts Readiness and virtualization support from Majestic Collaborations as part of the Art of Mass Gatherings for Performing Arts program.

This is a dynamic lineup of feature performances by women musicians from around the Tennessee Valley and across the country. Tickets are available here.

Proceeds from ticket sales benefit Valley Arts and Entertainment's mission to provide dynamic musical programming and services designed to engage and promote the careers of emerging and established artists. The organization provides meaningful encounters of musical excellence by partnering with schools and other community organizations to support underserved multi-generational audiences. Valley Arts and Entertainment is a charitable organization founded in 2006.
