OUR LAST SPEAKER AND KIDS EVENTS COMING

It is hard to believe that we are almost done with the season. Thank you for all those that have come to our lectures and have supported the society by becoming members. The April fieldtrip is still being planned, updates will be sent as soon as we have all the details. We happy to share that we will be having two kids events in April and May. Thank you for your support and see you at the lectures.

March 15th Speaker: Chris Davenport 10:30- 12:30

An Overview of Palm Beach County Archaeology

Davenport is Palm Beach County's Archaeologist. He is responsible for the management of 211 archaeological resources, 51 archaeological conservation zones, eight historically designated structures, and three eligible historic districts. Daily responsibilities include grant application reviews; historic resource reviews for ORO; public outreach; maintain, update and interpret the county's database (map) of known historic resources; conduct building permit reviews for construction on archaeological sites; document historic structures and determine their significance prior to demolition manage the archaeological intern program, with 14 interns and upwards of 30 volunteers.

Kids Event

PEOPLE AND POTS- ARCHAEOLOGY THROUGH PLAY

Saturday, April 12 2025

10:30AM - 11:30AM

Hobe Sound Public Library

Presented by SEFAS and FPAN students learn about the advent of pottery in Florida, and do hands-on experimentation using clay to explore pottery-making and - decorating technology. The lesson also teaches about how pottery can help archaeologists understand a site and its people.

Registrations Starts March 15th

Ages 6-12

Lectures are held at the Hobe
Sound Public Library
