Jennifer is an award-winning choreographer, known for her work at one of the top training programs for high school theater students in the State of New Jersey. Jennifer began her dance training at the age of three studying Ballet, Tap and Jazz. She discovered her love of theatre at a young age when her grandfather, who worked at the Paper Mill Playhouse for over fifty years as the wardrobe master, would take her to see shows. She choreographed her first musical Damn Yankees, when she was a senior in high school and has been working professionally choreographing musicals ever since.
