Heal your heartbreak, balance your life.

When your heart is fractured, everything—work, friendships, even your purpose—feels out of tune. By healing the heart, we realign every part of who we are and rediscover our power to thrive.

FINDLOVEAGAIN

FindLoveAgain blends humor, raw storytelling, and practical takeaways to explore how we recover from heartbreak and return to our “factory setting” of love. Through laugh-out-loud anecdotes—from online dating fish photos to a Howard Stern dream romance—paired with vulnerable moments of loss and healing, Robyn shows how heartbreak doesn’t have to define us. Instead, it can unlock resilience, reinvention, and even a deeper sense of purpose.

Mixing romantic comedy with science, psychology, and personal hacks, this talk delivers a dose of Inspotainment that reminds us we are built for love, and we can all find it again.
