

Beer Taste Test Competition

1. Gather a group of friends interested in testing their ability to identify different types of beer. One person will need to be the judge and set up the competition.

2. Purchase the brands of beer you'd like to taste test, 6 is a good sample size. Write the names of each of the beers on the score sheet below in no particular order.

3. Print out the can DBRT Competition Labels below and (the judge) shall cut and tape them onto each of the different kinds of beer making sure no identifying marks can be seen.

4. Using their own glass, each contestant will then taste test each of the beers and write down on the score sheet the brand of beer they think each sample is.

5. When everyone has guessed, remove the labels and congratulate the lush that has the most correct answers.

(Please play responsibly)

Write down the 6 beers that are in the taste test in no specific order.
