

1777 Brown's Raid Event

On September 14-15, join Fort Ticonderoga for an exciting two-day battle re-enactment highlighting the epic 1777 Brown's Raid! An attack led by patriot Colonel John Brown will take British troops garrisoning Fort Ticonderoga by surprise 247 years later during the upcoming real-life action adventure at Fort Ticonderoga.

The main Crown forces will be encamped in the lovely Kings Garden and once again there will be on Saturday a 24-hour posting at the outer works with the opportunity for those posting to stay in the newly built cabin across the road.

Morning, evening, and battle formations will be done on the parade ground inside the fort. Some other activities will be work parties will repair the outer work and fortifying the camp, patrols, posting of sentries and rotation of posting at the outer works.

But it will not always be fun and games, there will be plenty of time to visit the sutlers and this amazing museum with one of the best collections of 18th & 19th century military collections.

More information on the schedule, site map and registration will be coming soon.
