TOUCHING HEAVEN

HEALING PRAYER

I pray this over myself, my daughter (just sub their name in there), and others and have personally experienced and witnessed spontaneous healing.

The Lord has instructed me to share it with you in a script format that you may save it, say it, and pray it with the POWER & AUTHORITY that Christ instilled within you at salvation.

May it spark spontaneous healing within you.
Nothing missing, nothing broken... that is your portion.

In His Love,
Prophetess Jessica Yvonne

Lay Hands on yourself (anoint if you can!) & pray:

"Lord Jesus, I ask you to neutralize and nullify all effects of trauma, fear, rejection, abandonment, sorrow, pain, and anything else from the past (or this day) that may have caused imbalances in my mind, thoughts, emotions, and body systems.

Lord, undo all damages incurred through all space and time and bring your peace, balance, and harmony into every single cell in my body, even down to the DNA. For you said, "anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!", restore me to your image and likeness.

Lord Jesus, reknit what has been torn, renew my mind, and restore my heart to the heartbeat of The Father. Redeem any health I lost due to sin, ancestral sin, and from living in a fallen world and restore it back to me now. May my latter health be greater than my former.

Send your word and heal me, save me from harm and destruction.
Heal me and I will be healed. Save me and I will be saved. For you are my praise.
Heal any broken place within my heart and bind up my wounds.
Bring me health and healing and reveal to me the abundance of peace and truth.
Father, give me beauty for ashes, joy instead of mourning, and praise instead of despair."
I pray my wounds heal quickly, may my godliness lead me forward, and the Glory of the Lord protect me from behind, In Jesus name.
