

Questions About The Lost Chapter of Revelation

By Pastor Ed Anderson

Is there a lost chapter of the book Revelation?

Answer:

No, there is no “lost chapter” of the book of Revelation — not according to the Bible, history, or any credible ancient manuscript tradition.

What Does the Bible Say?

The Bible ends with Revelation 22, and the final verses include a warning:

“If anyone adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues... and if anyone takes away...God shall take away his part from the Book of Life.”

— Revelation 22:18–19

These verses strongly suggest that Revelation is complete and divinely sealed.

What About the “Missing Chapter” Rumors?

Claims about a “lost chapter” often trace back to:

1. Fake Apocryphal Texts

Circulating online or in fringe books — often written much later and falsely attributed to John or others.

These have no basis in biblical manuscripts or early church writings.

2. The “Lost Chapter of Acts” or “Revelation 23”

These are sometimes promoted by conspiracy theorists, Gnostic movements, or secret society myths.

They usually blend pseudoscience, mysticism, and speculation, not Scripture.

3. New Age or Cultic Claims

Groups that teach hidden knowledge or “new revelation” may claim to possess lost chapters.

This directly contradicts Scripture, which teaches that God’s Word is complete (Jude 1:3, Hebrews 1:1–2).

Why This Matters Spiritually

Satan's strategy in the last days is deception.
Jesus said:

"Take heed that no one deceives you." — Matthew 24:4

When people claim there's a "lost chapter," it:

- Undermines the authority of Scripture
- Distracts from the clear, urgent message of Revelation
- Often leads people into dangerous or false teachings

What We Do Have

- Revelation is already a complete prophetic roadmap for the end times.
- It matches Daniel, the Gospels, and the Epistles.
- It points to Jesus Christ as King, not hidden numerology, secret knowledge, or mystery books.

"The Revelation of Jesus Christ...to show His servants things which must shortly take place." — Revelation 1:1

Final Thought

You don't need a "lost chapter."

You need the Holy Spirit to unlock the chapters we already have.
