We acknowledge the Whadjuk people of the Noongar Nation as the Traditional Custodians of Walyalup (Fremantle), the land on which we gather. We pay our respects to their Elders past, present, & emerging & recognise their enduring connection to this land, waters & community..

We acknowledge that Sovereignty was never Ceded.

Heart Place VISION & MISSION

OUR VISION:

A compassionate world where we are responsive to suffering & have capacity for trauma integrative community.

OUR PURPOSE:

To create safe spaces & communities for growth, healing & the practice of compassionate care.

OUR MISSION:

To provide educational, healing & practice-based activities that promote compassion, connection, & community.

OUR FOCUS:

Three interrelated areas of healing our capacity to care: for ourselves, each-other & the land.

OUR VALUES:

We believe in the sanctity of all life.

That to end the cycle of trauma, empathy & compassion cannot be selective.

We believe that the suffering of one is the suffering of all, that we are interconnected.

We believe in the the principle of universality of human rights
