Docu+ Announces Korean Intellectual Property Office Approval on Docu+®

SEOUL, SOUTH KOREA (December 23, 2022) – Docu+ is pleased to announce the grants of KIPO Registration Nos: 40-2021-0077112 for the Docu+®. The trademarks include the logo with the word “Docu+” layered with a tree.

Docu+ is a boutique film production company offering production services to corporate clients in Korea and around the world and has a track record of working with established brands such as Montbest and the HL Group.

Founder/Director of Docu+®, Danny Kim, speaks about the new trademark approval for their company. “Registering the Docu+ trademark with the KIPO will help to further strengthen the branding of our production in the markets we serve. By continuing to establish and validate the Docu+ brand, we believe we can navigate the uncertainties of the ever changing media landscape facing today and make a greater impact .”

In 2022 Docu+ added their first conglomerate client with production of a 60th year anniversary three part documentary series for the HL group. Additionally Docu+ currently is in the post production phase of original feature length documentary film ZERO WASTE.
