Docu+ Selected to Participate at the Korean Film Lounge sponsored by KOFIC at Tokyo International Film Festival Market (TIFFCOM)

SEOUL, SOUTH KOREA — Docu+, an award winning impact film studio, is thrilled to announce its selection to participate in the prestigious Korean Film Lounge sponsored by the Korean Film Council (KOFIC) at the Tokyo International Film Festival Market (TIFFCOM). This remarkable opportunity will showcase Docu+'s dedication to producing compelling and thought-provoking documentary films.

The Korean Film Lounge, organized by KOFIC, serves as a prominent platform at TIFFCOM, allowing selected companies to exhibit their latest projects, expand networks, and foster valuable industry relationships. This recognition underscores Docu+'s commitment to excellence and marks a significant milestone in the company's journey.

As a forward-thinking film studio, Docu+ has consistently demonstrated its passion for producing high-quality documentaries that shed light on various societal, cultural, and environmental issues. Through this collaboration with the Korean Film Lounge, Docu+ aims to leverage its unique storytelling approach and foster international partnerships to bring captivating stories to a global audience.

"We are honored and excited to be chosen as one of the participants in the Korean Film Lounge at TIFFCOM," said Danny Kim, founder and director at Docu+. "This recognition affirms our dedication to the art of documentary filmmaking and our commitment to creating meaningful content that resonates with audiences worldwide. We look forward to showcasing our latest projects and exploring opportunities for international collaborations."

The Tokyo International Film Festival Market (TIFFCOM) is an esteemed marketplace that attracts filmmakers, industry professionals, and film enthusiasts from around the world. As Docu+ takes part in the Korean Film Lounge, it joins an exclusive group of exceptional film companies that are making significant contributions to the global film industry.
