Seoul, South Korea – April 12, 2024 – Docu+, a leading impact film studio based in Seoul, is pleased to announce its collaboration with The Korea Society in hosting a virtual community screening of the acclaimed documentary "Zero Waste" in celebration of Earth Day on April 22nd, 2024. The event will be followed by an exclusive pre-recorded director's Q&A session.

As a company committed to producing impactful documentaries that address pressing global issues, Docu+ is thrilled to partner with The Korea Society to bring "Zero Waste" to audiences in New York City and beyond. Through compelling storytelling and insightful exploration, the documentary sheds light on the urgent need for waste reduction and recycling initiatives to combat environmental pollution.

The virtual screening of "Zero Waste" offers viewers a unique opportunity to engage with the film's powerful message from the comfort of their homes. From showcasing innovative waste management solutions to inspiring individuals to embrace zero-waste lifestyles, the documentary serves as a catalyst for meaningful change and collective action.

Following the screening, attendees will have the exclusive chance to delve deeper into the film's themes during a pre-recorded director's Q&A session. This intimate discussion with the filmmaker provides a behind-the-scenes look at the inspiration and challenges behind the creation of "Zero Waste," offering valuable insights into the journey towards environmental sustainability.

"We are excited to bring 'Zero Waste' to audiences in greater NYC and worldwide in honor of Earth Day," said Danny Kim, Director at Docu+. "Through this virtual screening and Q&A session, we hope to spark dialogue and inspire individuals to take meaningful steps towards building a more sustainable future."

The Earth Day Community Screening of "Zero Waste" is open to all members of the public passionate about environmental conservation and sustainability. Viewers can register for the event on The Korea Society's website and join the virtual screening on April 22nd, 2024.
