Docu+ Launches Groundbreaking Producer in Training (PIT) Track for Emerging Filmmakers

SEOUL, NOVEMBER 20, 2023 — Docu+, a pioneering impact film studio, is thrilled to announce the debut of its Producer in Training (PIT) track—a transformative program tailored for aspiring producers seeking to kickstart their careers in the dynamic film industry. This initiative underscores Docu+'s commitment to empowering emerging talent with the tools, knowledge, and mentorship required to thrive in the world of impactful storytelling.

Key Features of the PIT Track:

1. Tailored Film Production Curriculum: The PIT track features a comprehensive curriculum, delving into the intricacies of film production, storytelling, and the impact genre. Participants will gain insights into the art and business of filmmaking.
2. Expert Mentorship: Each participant will be paired with an accomplished mentor from within the film industry. This mentorship program provides personalized guidance, fostering professional growth and connecting emerging producers with experienced industry leaders.
3. Hands-On Production Experience: The program integrates practical, hands-on experiences, allowing participants to apply their skills and creativity in real-world film production scenarios.
4. Industry Networking Events: PIT track participants gain exclusive access to industry events, film festivals, and networking sessions, offering opportunities to connect with established professionals and potential collaborators.
5. Certification of Completion: Upon successfully concluding the PIT track, participants will receive a certification from Docu+, validating their expertise and commitment to making an impact through filmmaking.

"We are excited to unveil the Producer in Training (PIT) track as part of our ongoing commitment to fostering innovation and excellence in the film industry," said Danny Kim, CEO of Docu+. "This program is designed to empower emerging producers with the skills, knowledge, and connections necessary to bring impactful stories to life. Through the PIT track, we aim to contribute to the growth and success of the next generation of storytellers."

The PIT track is open to passionate filmmakers at the outset of their careers who are eager to make a positive impact through the art of storytelling.
