From the bustling streets of Boise to the tranquil lakes of Coeur d'Alene, summer in Idaho is noth enjoying seasonal festivals, or exploring natural wonders, there's something for everyone. This guldaho, Southern Idaho, and the East—perfect for planning your best summer yet.

Treasure Valley Vibes

The heart of Idaho comes alive in summer. In Boise, start your adventure with a float down the Boise River, a classic Treasure Valley experience. Rent a tube or raft at Barber Park and drift through the tree-lined city, ending at Ann Morrison Park. It's a refreshing way to see the city from a unique perspective and a perfect outing for groups or families.

Don't miss Alive After Five, Boise's free weekly concert series held in The Grove Plaza, featuring live music, food, and drinks. Also popular are First Thursdays in downtown Boise, where shops, galleries, and restaurants host special events, tastings, and performances.

Visit local farmers markets in Boise, Meridian, and Nampa for fresh produce, handmade goods, and live entertainment. The Capital City Public Market and Meridian Main Street Market are community favorites.

For nature lovers, Camel's Back Park and the Boise Foothills offer a wide range of hiking and biking trails, while Esther Simplot Park and Whitewater Park provide opportunities to kayak, paddleboard, and swim in calm, city-accessible waters.

Sports fans can catch a Boise Hawks baseball game or enjoy a sunny day trip to Lucky Peak Reservoir, ideal for boating, swimming, and picnicking. Families will enjoy outings to Roaring Springs Water Park and Wahooz Family Fun Zone, packed with activities for kids of all ages.

Wine lovers will want to explore the Sunnyslope Wine Trail, just 45 minutes from downtown Boise, for tastings and scenic views. With over a dozen wineries, it's a picturesque escape into Idaho's growing wine country.

Whether you're into music, food, outdoor adventures, or family fun, the Treasure Valley delivers a full summer agenda.

Northern Idaho Adventures (Couer d'Alene & Surrounding Areas)

In Coeur d'Alene, lake life is the name of the game. The crown jewel of the region, Lake Coeur d'Alene, offers endless opportunities for recreation and relaxation. Rent a paddleboard, kayak, or boat to explore its sparkling blue waters, dotted with scenic coves and quiet bays. Sunset cruises and guided lake tours are also popular for those who prefer to take in the views without paddling.

Just steps from downtown, Tubbs Hill provides a natural escape with its shaded, family-friendly trails and breathtaking overlooks of the lake. It's a perfect spot for a morning hike or evening stroll, and its shoreline paths even allow access to small, secluded beaches ideal for a swim or picnic.

If you're looking for high-energy fun, head to Silverwood Theme Park, the largest amusement park in the Northwest. With over 70 rides, including roller coasters, water slides, and kid-friendly attractions, it's a full day of excitement. The attached Boulder Beach Water Park is a favorite during the warmer months, offering wave pools and lazy rivers to cool off.

Art and culture thrive in downtown Coeur d'Alene, especially during the Art Walk, held on the second Friday of every month. Stroll through charming streets as local galleries open their doors to showcase regional artists, accompanied by live music and light refreshments.

Whether you're after outdoor thrills, cultural experiences, or peaceful nature escapes, Northern Idaho delivers with a laid-back charm and breathtaking scenery around every corner.

Southern Charm (Twin Falls & Magic Valley)

Southern Idaho is full of dramatic landscapes and outdoor thrills. Start with a visit to Shoshone Falls, often called the "Niagara of the West," which is especially powerful in early summer.

For an adrenaline rush, head to the Perrine Bridge, one of the only places in the U.S. where BASE jumping is legal year-round. If you prefer to stay grounded, rent a kayak or paddleboard to explore the Snake River Canyon below.

Don't forget to stop at local fruit stands and farms, where summer harvests bring fresh cherries, peaches, and berries.

Eastern Escapes (Idaho Falls, Pocatello, Teton Valley)

In Eastern Idaho, summer is a season of celebration and wide-open adventure. Idaho Falls lights up the season with one of the largest fireworks displays in the state, held along the scenic Snake River Greenbelt on the 4th of July—complete with food vendors, live music, and a festive community vibe.

Nature lovers can hike through the Targhee National Forest, where cool pine-scented trails offer peaceful escapes, or visit the breathtaking Mesa Falls near Ashton. This powerful waterfall, framed by volcanic cliffs and forested paths, is one of Idaho's best-kept secrets and a must-visit for photographers and adventurers alike.

Meanwhile, the small towns of Pocatello and Teton Valley come alive with summer rodeos, county fairs, and outdoor concerts—celebrating community with a dose of old-fashioned Idaho hospitality. You'll find everything from local art and crafts to delicious food, dancing, and even pig races.

BOISE

Boise, the capital of Idaho, is a thriving city set in the heart of the Treasure Valley, where the rolling foothills meet the Boise River. Known as the "City of Trees," Boise is remarkably beautiful, with tree-lined streets, lush parks, and an extensive greenbelt that winds through the city. This blend of nature and urban charm creates an inviting atmosphere that residents and visitors alike appreciate.

Boise is a hot spot for outdoor enthusiasts, offering year-round recreation from hiking and biking in the foothills to skiing at Bogus Basin. The city's vibrant downtown features a mix of local shops, restaurants, breweries, and cultural attractions, including the Boise Art Museum, the Idaho State Capitol, and the historic Basque Block. Annual events such as the Treefort Music Fest, Boise Farmers Market, and Spirit of Boise Balloon Classic showcase the city's lively culture.

Beyond its recreational appeal, Boise has a dynamic economy supported by industries such as technology, healthcare, agriculture, and education. The city continues to gain recognition as a business-friendly destination with a growing job market and entrepreneurial spirit. A welcoming environment, combined with its rich history, scenic beauty, and strong sense of community, makes Boise a place that only becomes more appealing the longer people stay.

EAGLE

From its beautifully diverse landscapes of plush tree-lined riverside beaches to the remote desert canyons that lie just beyond the foothills, the City of Eagle is distinctly beautiful. Find this community highly desirable for many reasons beyond its stunning landscapes. One of Eagle's commonly unknown hidden treasures is that it shares a similar land size as its neighbor, the City of Meridian, though remains a smaller community with nearly one third the population.

Eagle offers the ideal mix of an established community with a fine selection of dining options, a museum, boutiques & shops, an arcade, local parks, as well as area trails and pathways. Complimented by its ideal blend of land use, the City of Eagle boasts a remarkable selection of home styles and living accommodations. Discover the lifestyle that suits you best from riverside condos & flats to homes in the countryside, waterside or golf course living and a bit of everything in between. Escape to your very own in town retreat for a lifetime of memories.

Whether heading into town for a bite to eat, a day at the river, or an evening of entertainment, find countless indoor and outdoor activity opportunities within minutes. Living in the City of Eagle also proves beneficial in its relatively quick access to the bigger city amenities of the City of Boise, as well as straightforward access ideal for getting out of town towards the mountains. Whatever you enjoy, there is something in the City of Eagle for everyone. Check it out for yourself!

MERIDIAN

The City of Meridian sits as the heart of the Treasure Valley, nestled amid the valley's largest cities. Discover all that the City of Meridian has to offer from dining options to shopping opportunities as well as being centrally located for optimal commute times. Meridian is home to a plethora of community parks and outdoor activities, in addition to its strong healthcare presence, job opportunities, and endless entertainment options. There is so much to love when you choose to make Meridian home. The city of Meridian proves again and again to boast the ideal blend of amenities.

What are some of the top reasons people consider a move to Meridian, Idaho? Whether it be good schools, quality healthcare, quality of life, the job market and access to well-paying careers, and the many reasons people choose to move, there truly is something for everyone in Meridian. It gets brisk in the winters here, though living in an area with four distinct seasons is more than enough to make up for it!

Living in Meridian can very possibly mean finding the very things that help make life more enjoyable. How about heading out on the town for a sizzling mix of fine dining options or a delicious homestyle meal, enjoying a sunny day at a local park, or maybe a relaxing evening at the movies? The best part of living in Meridian is that being a part of all that makes up Idaho. Stretching beyond the city and into the sprawling boundaries of Idaho opens up another world of possibilities. There's a lifetime of places to go and things to do.

How about escaping for the holidays to a mountain retreat, or a week rafting the Salmon River? What about exploring an old ghost town filled with historic treasures, heading over to award-winning wineries, or finding yourself traveling across the plains where the wild horses roam and prairie lands are so vast, they stretch out across the horizon? Life is better in Idaho and now it's time to find all the reasons why you'll enjoy living here so much!

STAR

The City of Star is a flourishing community of growth combined with the delicate balance of nature. This delightful city boasts a hometown feel of knowing your neighbors combined with an atmosphere of small-town charm. Delight in weekends packed with fun or simply enjoy the peace and quiet of utter relaxation in the comfort of home. Save time cooking and head out to one of the local eateries for savory home-style cooking and tasty treats. Star also offers local area shopping options and things to do.

Enjoy area amenities with things to do including a selection of community classes, the library, sports leagues, a community center, skate park, and the popular Star's Hometown 4th of July Celebration event. Be sure to check out the Star RiverWalk, a popular year-round destination surrounded by nature and ideally located adjacent to the graceful Boise River. The pathway is lined with dense greenery and is popular for its area birdlife including the Great Blue Heron, Bald Eagle, Osprey, Wood Ducks and more! The Boise River is also a popular destination for those warm summer days ideal for enjoying a day at the water. There's more! Find time to head over to one of the local community parks or the expansive sports park ideal for a picnic or a BBQ and a game!

The sky's the limit for weekends in and around the City of Star! Enjoy a day exploring area shops, going to the salon, and possibly head into the City of Boise for a movie and a night out. Living in the city of Star can mean enjoying a quaint community feel with larger city amenities minutes away. Star is situated in the Treasure Valley which also boasts nearby cities including Boise, Meridian, Eagle, Middleton, Kuna, Nampa, and Caldwell to name a few. Lavish in the luxuries of home in the countryside or close to downtown, whichever you prefer, when you choose to live in the inviting city of Star.

KUNA

The City of Kuna could easily be described as "big city meets big country" and offers a quick escape from any urban apprehension. Delight in sprawling vistas, various parks, the historical museum & performing arts center, a selection of wineries, as well as a seasonal creek for waterside enjoyment. For additional outdoor activity opportunities, a bit further out, you may enjoy a day at Lake Lowell and the Deer Flat Wildlife Refuge or trekking over to the Snake River Birds of Prey Area that sits alongside the stunning Snake River. There's so much to do in and around the City of Kuna. The options are endless!

Kuna boasts a relatively smaller population of around 19,000 residents and growing, which makes for an excellent opportunity to live in a community of familiar names and faces, while still getting to know new residents! Kuna retains a tightknit community feel and offers access to big city amenities like that of the much larger City of Boise, Meridian, and Nampa, with travel times ranging in at about an hour or so depending on the desired destination.

Spend your time enjoying the perks of living in a smaller city starting with a lower median home price than that of those in the larger surrounding cities. You may also enjoy less in-town traffic and congestion, the freedom to enjoy a slower paced lifestyle if you so choose, as well as the many other perks associated with small-town charm. Enjoy the culture that the City of Kuna creates and the freedom to decide how best to spend your days and evenings living in the countryside.

NAMPA

The City of Nampa is a flourishing community of steady economic growth combined with a strong presence of community. The pinnacle of Nampa's notoriety remains the highly sought-after lower cost of living it provides. Nampa boasts a surplus of area amenities, entertainment options and indoor & outdoor activity opportunities. Nampa features 20+ community parks, abundant shopping opportunities including the Karcher Mall and the Treasure Valley Marketplace, a skating rink, museums, multiple movie theater options, a recreation center and more! Living in the City of Nampa brings with it an ideal combination of work and play. Find time to enjoy Lake Lowell and the Deer Flat National Wildlife Refuge, or you may want to consider heading over to the nearby Snake River and the Morley Nelson Snake River Birds of Prey Area.

The City of Nampa is a treasure trove of economic opportunity reaching out into health care and social assistance, manufacturing, retail trade, construction, educational services, and other services. The largest employers in Nampa include Amazon, Wal-Mart Associates Inc., St. Alphonsus Medical Center Nampa, Plexus Corp., Sorrento Lactalis, Northwest Nazarene University, Amalgamated Sugar Co., Great American Snacks, St. Luke's Regional Medical, Woodgrain Millwork Inc., Mission Aviation Fellowship, Heartland RV, Materne North America, ON Semiconductor, Assisted Living of Idaho, Pacific Press Publishing, Fleetwood Homes Inc., Mirage Enterprises Inc., and HB Specialty Foods.

Enjoy a four seasons destination with the perks of Spring, Summer, and Fall fun activities like strolling the area pathways, boating, golfing, hunting, fishing, horseback riding, or possibly heading over to Lakeview Water Park for water fun or Midway Sports Park ideal for sports activities galore. What about year-round indoor and outdoor concerts, rodeos, and events? You may consider heading over to the Idaho Ford Center for a large selection of events. Have you always wanted to learn how to fly? The Nampa Municipal Airport is used for private, emergency, military, and industrial aviation.

Additional year-round activities also include enjoying all that the Nampa Recreation Center and the Nampa Civic Center have to offer. Or maybe consider taking a semester of classes at the local university or college campus. Whatever you may enjoy Nampa has something for everyone. Discover all that Nampa has to offer you!

CALDWELL

Take a moment to be introduced to a wealth of the beautiful landscapes within the City of Caldwell. From the rolling green hills lined delicately with vineyards, groves, and orchards, to the valley's floor that is graciously complimented by the winding waters of the magnificent Boise River. Downtown Caldwell is ideally accented by the gentle waters of Indian Creek, a popular destination for those touring area shops and eateries. Find time to enjoy a self-guided tour of this area for an enjoyable day out on the town. This beautifully diverse growing region is filled with warm, fun-filled sunny days, evenings accented with low lying fog, and a hint of snow in the colder months. It's easy to feel spoiled when surrounded by Idaho's fascinating natural settings and breathtaking destinations. Escape to the countryside for stunning scenic landscapes and views across the valley to the peaks of the Owyhee Mountains.

The beautiful City of Caldwell is complimented well with generous indoor and outdoor activity opportunities; from a day touring the wineries, to an evening at the golf course, there is something for everyone. The Canyon County Fairgrounds is a popular location for year-round events like rodeos and the fair. Discover destinations like the local college well known for its planetarium, art gallery, and the 850-seat proscenium house. Searching for adventure close to home? Explore the skies above Caldwell with a day starting at the Caldwell Airport, and then heading off to enjoy an exciting day skydiving.

Caldwell is packed with things to do! Find outdoor activity opportunities including fishing, hunting, water activities, various local parks, area OHV trails, and a shooting range. Consider checking out indoor activities that include a choice of movie theaters, an arcade, or exploring the various museums. Take a moment to feel like you've stepped back in time when you discover the local drive-in theatre or find yourself enjoying a historic tour of the remarkable downtown buildings and train depot. For those who enjoy the simple pleasures of an afternoon on the water surrounded by lush landscapes, you may want to consider heading over to the beautiful Lake Lowell. This highly desirable destination is ideal for enjoying area birdlife complimented by the rich warm colors of an evening sunset.

EMMETT

Emmett, Idaho, situated in the heart of Gem County, is a picturesque town steeped in history and natural beauty. Nestled within the verdant landscapes of the "Valley of Plenty," Emmett enjoys a tranquil ambiance that beckons both residents and visitors to explore its charming streets and immerse themselves in its unique atmosphere.

The town's roots trace back to its rich agricultural heritage, with farming playing a central role in its economy and culture. Surrounding Emmett are vast expanses of fertile farmland, where crops thrive under the Idaho sun, contributing to the region's reputation for producing high-quality produce.

The gentle waters of the Payette River meander through the countryside, providing not only scenic vistas but also opportunities for outdoor recreation, such as fishing, rafting, and picnicking along its banks. In addition to its natural wonders, Emmett boasts a vibrant downtown area adorned with historic buildings and bustling with local businesses, including quaint shops, cozy cafes, and inviting restaurants serving up delicious fare. The town's close-knit community spirit is palpable, as residents come together to celebrate annual events, such as the Cherry Festival and the Emmett Harvest Festival, showcasing the area's agricultural heritage and fostering a sense of belonging among its inhabitants. With its blend of small-town charm, abundant natural beauty, and rich history, Emmett stands as a testament to the enduring allure of rural life in Idaho.

BEYOND THE TREASUR

COEUR d'ALENE

Nestled in the heart of North Idaho, Coeur d'Alene is a stunning lakeside city that offers a perfect blend of outdoor adventure, small-town charm, and modern amenities. Known for its crystalclear waters, towering pine forests, and vibrant community, it's a destination that attracts visitors year-round.

At the heart of the city is Lake Coeur d'Alene, a breathtaking 25-mile-long lake that provides endless opportunities for boating, fishing, paddleboarding, and scenic cruises. The surrounding mountains and trails, including the popular Tubbs Hill, make it a paradise for hikers, bikers, and nature lovers. Golfers will appreciate the world-famous floating green at Coeur d'Alene Resort Golf Course, while thrill-seekers can enjoy zip-lining, parasailing, or even skydiving.

Downtown Coeur d'Alene is just as exciting, offering a mix of boutique shopping, local breweries, art galleries, and top-notch dining with stunning lake views. The city hosts a variety of events and festivals throughout the year, including Ironman Coeur d'Alene, Art on the Green, Car d'Alene, and the magical Holiday Lights Show.

Whether you're looking for a peaceful lakeside retreat, an action-packed getaway, or a charming place to call home, Coeur d'Alene is truly one of Idaho's most captivating destinations.

Twin Falls, Idaho, is a vibrant and growing city that offers a perfect mix of natural beauty, affordability, and community spirit. Nestled in the scenic Magic Valley, Twin Falls is known for its stunning landscapes, including the Snake River Canyon and the breathtaking Shoshone Falls—often referred to as the "Niagara of the West." Outdoor enthusiasts will find plenty to do, from hiking and rock climbing to kayaking and base jumping off the famous Perrine Bridge. The area's mild climate allows for year-round recreation, making it an ideal place for those who love the outdoors.

RE VALLEY

Beyond its natural beauty, Twin Falls has a strong economy supported by industries like agriculture, healthcare, and manufacturing. The city has a growing job market, and with a lower cost of living compared to many larger cities, residents can enjoy a comfortable lifestyle without breaking the bank. Housing is more affordable than in many parts of the country, with a mix of charming historic homes and new developments. The city is also home to the College of Southern Idaho, which provides educational opportunities and contributes to the area's vibrant community.

For families, Twin Falls offers highly rated schools, safe neighborhoods, and plenty of parks and recreational activities. The city hosts various community events throughout the year, including farmers' markets, festivals, and concerts, fostering a strong sense of belonging among residents. Dining and entertainment options are expanding, with a mix of local restaurants, breweries, and coffee shops adding to the city's charm. While Twin Falls has all the conveniences of modern living, it maintains a relaxed, friendly atmosphere that makes it a welcoming place to call home. Whether you're drawn to the stunning scenery, outdoor lifestyle, or the strong sense of community, Twin Falls is a great choice for anyone looking to settle in a city that offers both adventure and a high quality of life.

IDAHO FALLS

Idaho Falls is a picturesque city that offers a high quality of life with a perfect blend of outdoor adventure, affordability, and community charm. Situated along the Snake River in eastern Idaho, the city is known for its beautiful greenbelt, a scenic walking and biking path that winds along the river, offering stunning views and plenty of outdoor recreation. Residents enjoy all four seasons, with snowy winters ideal for skiing and mild summers perfect for hiking, fishing, and exploring nearby Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks. The city's location provides easy access to some of the most breathtaking natural landscapes in the country, making it a great place for outdoor enthusiasts.

Beyond its natural beauty, Idaho Falls boasts a strong economy, with thriving industries in healthcare, energy, and technology. The city is home to the Idaho National Laboratory, a major employer in the region, as well as a growing medical sector that provides excellent job opportunities. Despite its steady growth, Idaho Falls maintains a relatively low cost of living compared to larger metropolitan areas, with affordable housing options ranging from charming historic homes to modern new developments.

Idaho Falls is also a great place for families, with highly rated schools, safe neighborhoods, and a strong sense of community. The city hosts numerous events throughout the year, including farmers' markets, cultural festivals, and outdoor concerts, fostering a vibrant local culture. The downtown area has seen recent revitalization, with unique shops, restaurants, and breweries adding to the city's charm. Whether you're looking for career opportunities, a family-friendly environment, or an outdoor lifestyle, Idaho Falls offers a welcoming and well-rounded place to call home.

BALLINGER FLAT TRAIL | MOUNTAIN HOME | 0.6MI

A short side trip past a spring to overlook the South Fork Boise River with access from Danskin Trail #340. The view from the canyon rim is well worth the ride.

THE WASH TRAIL | EMMETT | 1.6MI

This trail runs down "The Wash" from East Perimeter Trail down to Little Gem Service Road with hundreds of options to ride other connecting trails up both sides of the valley. Though most are quite steep and slick, hidden gems await your discovery.

AROUND THE MOUNTAIN | BOISE | 9.8MI

A great loop around Bogus Basin Ski Resort with amazing views all the way to Sawtooths and down into Boise. Moderate climbs, great berms and fast descents. The trail is well marked and connects to many other trails to create many other options.

THUNDER MONKEY | BOISE | 15.6MI

Beautiful alpine ride through MTB country with climbs, breathtaking descents, wood and stone features, and excellent backcountry single track. Connect the Shafer Butte system with Mahalo and Dry Creek. Note: This is a shuttle ride unless you're into pedaling up 14 miles back to the ski area on Bogus Basin road after the descent.

GREENHORN GULCH ADVENTURE | KETCHUM | 22.6MI

A stunning western landscape with narrow singletrack and a riot of springtime wildflowers. An excellent destination for eMTBing located just south of Sun Valley, ID. The majority of the trails in the network are open to eMTBs, allowing for multiple loops that vary from 30 minutes to all day.

BB BOMBER | BOISE | 27.3MI ■

A great shuttle run that will take you through the vast pines of Bogus Basin, past iconic Stack Rock and finish up on an open, flowing single track. Note: Dogs may be allowed off-leash on this trail.

TABLE ROCK TECH | BOISE | 3.6MI ◆

One of the best ways to experience the rocky trails in the Boise area. This ride starts from the top of Table Rock and can either be shuttled, or you can climb one of the numerous trails in the Table Rock system to its start. Note: Dogs may be allowed off-leash on this trail.

THE BIG POTATO | BOISE | 41MI ◆

The earliest this trail can be accessed is in Mid to Late May, depending on snow conditions. This ride is one of the best ways to experience the foothills outside of Boise. Note: Be prepared with food and water as Simplot lodge is the only stop along the way that may have access to supplies.

COYOTE CLASSIC RACE COURSE | EAGLE | 48MI ◆

This is the 2012 Race Course that tours some of the best single track and views in the Avimor trail system. Note: You'll find cows grazing in some of the more remote areas so please be aware of your surroundings.
