

artfulgrrrly news 1st edition

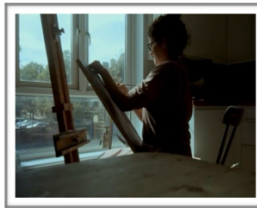

3 March 2025

Pop up number 3 at W11's iconic community hub The Tabernacle commences this week on Tuesday 4th March at 6pm (meet the artists!)

I will be presenting Kate Halsall

and Kamlah Kew

in the gallery (located at the left of the bar on the ground floor). In honour of the month of Mother's Day, I present 'Watch with Mother.'

This duo exhibition rejoices in motherhood through the medium of paint; where two female artists navigate what it means to be both mother and woman. 'See what they see'....And of course it's International Women's Day on the 8th so even more reason to celebrate them!

Kate Halsall is a Manx painter, working predominantly in oilpaints pen, ink and watercolour.

Kate creates atmospheric wild swimming paintings, filmic landscapes, figurative noir narratives and still life. Her subjects touch upon lifestyle, relationships and female identity.

Original ink works from £150.

Watercolour paintings from £360.

Oils from £1500.

Kamlah Kew is self-taught artist born in the beautiful Caribbean island of Antigua & Barbuda, now settled in the UK. Kamlah uses art as a way to inspire, soothe, connect and share.

Inspired by human connection and the Divine, yet centred around her love for Caribbean island culture and African heritage. Work is created mainly in acrylic and digital media with varying subjects in bold and vibrant colours.

Unframed Giclee numbered prints from £40.

Original paintings from £500.

Trading hours available at www.artfulgrrly.com. The show runs until Saturday 8th March.

Hope to see you there.

Juliette

The Tabernacle 34-35 Powis Square, London W11

2AY