FUGITIVE APPREHENDED FOLLOWING MULTI-AGENCY SEARCH WARRANT

PUTNAM COUNTY, TN -- Early this morning on May 23, 2025, Putnam County Sheriff's Office Warrants Division, in coordination with the PCSO Narcotics Division and the U.S. Marshals Task Force, executed a search warrant on a residence located at Greenland Ave. This search warrant was part of an ongoing investigation to locate a fugitive that has been evading law enforcement since 2018.

Inside the residence, authorities located and apprehended Joshua Kane Love, who was featured in our Warrant Wednesday segment on February 8, 2023. Also found at the residence was Ashley Green, who had been questioned multiple times over the past few years regarding the whereabouts of Love and had denied knowing him. Evidence gathered during the search warrant confirmed that Love had been residing at the home with Green.

Joshua Kane Love was taken into custody on outstanding warrants for Aggravated Burglary, 2 counts of Violation of Probation (original charge: Possession of over 10 lbs of Marijuana), and Failure to Appear on a Felony Charge. Additionally, Love was found to be in possession of a firearm and decoy law enforcement badges. As a convicted felon, he was also charged with Unlawful Carrying or Possession of a Weapon. Love has a bond set at 80,000 and is being held without bond for his 2 counts of Violation of Probation. He has a court date of July 17, 2025.

Ashley Green was also arrested and charged with Accessory After the Fact for harboring a fugitive. Green has a bond set at $8,000 and a court date of June 23, 2025.

Sheriff Farris stated, "This arrest is the result of persistent investigative work and outstanding coordination between our Deputies and our Federal partners. No matter how long a bad actor tries to hide, we will continue to pursue justice for the citizens of Putnam County. Our message is clear: if you break the law and run or hide, we will find you."
