2 TRAFFIC STOPS WITHIN 12 HOURS; YIELDS MULTIPLE FELONIES

PUTNAM COUNTY, TN— On January 15, 2026, PCSO Sgt. Garcia attempted to initiate a traffic stop on Baxter Rd after observing Silver Honda Sedan fail to come to a complete stop at a stop sign. The vehicle fled at a high rate of speed and evaded the attempted traffic stop.

Approximately one minute later, Deputies located the vehicle traveling eastbound on Window Cliff Rd near Cookeville Boatdock Rd. Deputies made contact and identified the driver as Jeremy Grisolano, with passengers Andrew Myatt and Ashley Goodard. Grisolano admitted he intentionally fled because he believed Myatt had an active arrest warrant. Grisolano consented to a search of his vehicle which revealed approximately 4.8 grams of Methamphetamine and a scale. A burnt straw was also found in Goodard's backpack.

Later that evening, in the same area, Deputy Bryan was patrolling on Baxter Rd when he pulled behind a Black Ford Fusion.
