Ephesians 6:14-18

14 Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16 above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; 18 praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints—

Prayer, Lord Jesus, I thank you for being my armor. I thank you for my salvation and the salvation of others. I thank you for imparting your righteousness to me. I thank you for the gift of faith, for giving me peace that surpasses all human understanding. I thank you for the sword of the Spirit, which is You, Lord. I lay down every other armor I may have put on before to protect myself. I lay down the armor of status, wealth, physical appearance, friends, and tribe. I shed it all off in the name of Jesus. I come in the name of the Lord, AMEN.
