

Karing Journey

Karin's workshop and retreat ministry, Karing Journey, specializes in integrative therapies that bring greater levels of wholeness and wellness to body, mind and spirit. These are offered as workshops, concerts, presentations, retreats, and recordings. If you struggle with fear, past trauma or negative emotions, her programs are invaluable! This year Karin is starting a group that will meet online weekly. If you are interested in participating or would like to talk with Karin personally, email: heavenlyharp@cox.net

The Ministry of Heavenly Harp shares God's love through music and stories, and the healing benefits of the harp, to bring peace and relaxation into your life. Heavenly Harp has seven CDs and six DVDs, and the book "Encounters with Heaven ~ Stories of God's Surprising Presence," which consists of 100 "heavenly" stories from Karin's work as a hospice harpist. Karin Gunderson's ministry, Heavenly Harp has touched over 50,000 people in the last eighteen years with her beautiful music and true "heavenly" stories.

Karin Gunderson

An music alumnus of Concordia College, Moorhead, MN, Karin is an accomplished vocalist, harpist and flutist. Her musical career has included work as a public school music teacher, a private music teacher, a church musician, and a performer. Karin served as a Hospice harpist for over ten years, where she was fondly known as the "singing harpist." Her ministry brought peace and comfort to more than 25,000 patients and their families in times of sorrow and pain. She has often been privileged to share in the amazing experiences of these patients as they cross over into heaven.
