

Ryan Gunderson began playing piano by ear when he was seven, picking out melodies he heard in movies, then creating his own arrangements. By age thirteen he was composing choral anthems that were sung in worship, and the All Saints Choir has had the joy of premiering nine of his compositions.

In high school Ryan earned a place in All State Choir all four years and in the All State Jazz Choir two years, and did arrangements and compositions for his classical and jazz choirs. At Northern Arizona University, Ryan studied music, and sang with the Shrine of the Ages Choir and the NAU Jazz choir. In 2017 he had several of his vocal arrangements performed in the International A Cappella Collegiate Competition while singing with NAU's all-male vocal ensemble, the Highlanders. He also toured Europe with the Shrine of the Ages Choir.

In the fall of 2017 Ryan was accepted into the music program at the University of Southern California. There he has been fulfilling the requirements for his Music Composition degree, and this past summer wrote orchestral music to accompany 5 ROTC commercials and a 7 minute promo video. Ryan plans to pursue a career as a film composer by continuing into the Film Scoring Masters Degree at the University of Southern California. He recorded his first album last year, an hour of meditative piano improvisations that are perfect for creating a peaceful environment at work or at home. Proceeds from his CD will go toward his education.
