

Porsch Campaign is Huge Winner in Petition Process

In order to qualify to run in a political party's primary election, a judicial candidate must obtain signatures of at least 5% of the enrolled voters of that political party between June 5 and July 12, 2018. Barry Porsch was the only judicial candidate to qualify in all 8 N.Y. political parties.

	Barry Porsch	David Ettman	Donna Cathy
Total Campaign Workers	45	12	8
Total Signatures	1,406	1,140	672
Number of Parties Qualified to Run in	8	6	4

Thank you voters and campaign workers. The Finger Lakes Times reported that: "Current District Attorney Barry Porsch of Seneca Falls may have set a record. He filed petitions for the Republican, Democrat, Conservative, Independence, Reform, Working Families, Women's Equality and Green parties." (see Finger Lakes Times, July 13, 2018).
