VOLUME 12 ISSUE 1

January 2018

President's message

*December was a busy month. There was the Lighted Boat parade, decorating the bar, hall and patio. Then Santa's came to the kid's event. There were Great turnouts at the club for these activities. The December General meeting and dinner that Renae & Bob Watson did was Wonderful! Good food, and lots of members came out to vote for the 2018 Board election. There were 9 members running for the Board. Congratulations to Bill Long, Dennis Morgan and John Watson. Thank you members who brought raffle prizes and goodies for the kid's raffle and members that bought tickets. The kid's raffle made $225.00! The New Years Eve party will be over by the time you get this newsletter. Thank you Harold & Glenda Bush and Matt & Kelly Bryant for planning this event. Save the date, March 3rd for the Sea Scouts Cioppino/Lasagna Dinner. Fliers will be posted at the bar with more information. Hope the Holidays good for you and yours and happy New Year!
Bill Watson, President.*
