

For the Children's Sake – Consider Their Future Before You Vote

Fairmont's Public Schools have a $21,700,000.00 bond (loan) on the November ballot.

How much money does the school district owe now and how big are the payments?

Bond	Interest Rate	Maturity	2024 Payments	Balance as of 6/30/25
Series 2015A Refunding	2.00% to 3.25%	2/1/2036	$610,000.00	$9,795,000.00
Series 2016A Refunding	2.00% to 3.00%	2/1/2034	$730,000.00	$7,495,000.00
Series 2017A Refunding	2.75% to 5.00%	2/1/2035	$375,000.00	$4,560,000.00
Series 2020A Facilities	4.00% to 5.00%	2/1/2031	$155,000.00	$1,090,000.00
Series 2021A Building	2.00%	2/1/2039	None in 2025	$6,605,000.00
Total current school debt			$1,870,000.00	$29,545,000.00

Updated
Info!

2025 School Referendum (proposed debt)	$21,700,000.00
2026 planned bond for July 2025 tax levy increase*	$17,800,000.00
Total current school debt	$29,545,000.00
Total debt if school referendum passes	$69,045,000.00

$69,045,000.00 is a big debt for the taxpayers to pay.

Updated
Info!

It's an even bigger mortgage to pass on to our children.

Vote your conscience for our kids on November 4th

*Per Fairmont Sentinel dated October 16, 2025