HUNTERSVILLE HAPPY HOUR MESSAGE

By President Mike Fitzgerald

Last Monday we had a great program from Denise Adcock on how everyone communicates but few connect.

What a busy weekend our club had. We participated in the Veterans Day Parade, kicked off our annual Holiday Wreath Fundraiser and we had huge numbers represent our club attend the Foundation Banquet at Langtree Plantation. Great job everyone!

Don't forget tomorrow we don't have a meeting and will have a vocational trip to Metrolina Greenhouse from 1:30 till 3:00 PM
Everyone is welcome to bring friends and family!

November 12 – Vocational Trip to Metrolina Greenhouses

Visit to the family owned and largest single-site heated greenhouse in the USA with 162 acres under one roof. Want to go? Meet us at 1:30 pm at the office inside!

Club Fundraiser – Fresh Fir Holiday Wreaths

$25 for a 22" natural Fraser Fir wreath fresh from Ashe County. Order before November 17 and we deliver before Thanksgiving!!
Contact any member!! Or call 704-905-5002

November 10 – Foundation Banquet

We had a great time at the banquet, with 11 attendees from our club. Great evening!

Club Service – Rotary family

Congratulations to Debbie Wilhelm, who got married today to Steve Herbert. Several of our Rotary members attended and it was a wedding to remember!!

Club Service – New Member

We welcome Eileen Solomon to our Rotary family. Don't mind the pool playing photo bomber 😊

November 10 – Tree Planting

RI President John Germ
In 1939 Paul Harris planted a tree at the Mint Museum. Every time an RI President is in town, he plants a tree there too.

November 10 – Community Service

Huntersville Veterans Day Parade

Our club had Bob's 53 Pick Up in the parade with students from Grand Oak Elementary singing "America the Beautiful". Our Rotary tent gave out cookies and we took orders for Christmas wreaths, thanks to our volunteers!

Chartered on June 16, 2014

October 27 – Community Service

Huntington Greens Clean Up Day

Thanks to Mike, Mark, John, Tom, Walter and Eric, the Mayor, Huntersville Police and other service organizations the Huntington Greens neighborhood is a bit cleaner.

October 22, 23, 24 and 25 – Youth & International Service

October 24 – United Nations Day & World Polio Day

Our club members educated students at Huntersville Elementary about how Rotary started UNESCO, later the United Nations and how Rotary got involved in eradicating Polio. Only 3 countries left. For less than $1, you can help a child in another country. Students brought money to school and got their Pinkie Painted Purple, just like the children that get the immunization drops in Afghanistan, Pakistan and Nigeria.

PURPLE PINKIE DAY!
